TOTAL FALL 2012 ENROLLMENT: 16,687

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette, the largest member of the University of Louisiana System, is a public institution of higher education offering bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. Within the Carnegie classification, the University is designated as a Research University with High Research Activity. The University's academic programs are administered by the Colleges of the Arts, Education, Engineering, General Studies, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Allied Health Professions, B. I. Moody III College of Business Administration, Ray P. Authement College of the Sciences, and the Graduate School. The University is dedicated to achieving excellence in undergraduate and graduate education, in research, and in public service.

For undergraduate education, this commitment implies a fundamental subscription to general education, rooted in the primacy of the traditional liberal arts and sciences as the core around which all curricula are developed. The graduate programs seek to develop scholars who will variously advance knowledge, cultivate aesthetic sensibility, and improve the material conditions of humankind. The University reaffirms its historic commitment to diversity and integration. Thus, through instruction, research, and service, the University promotes regional economic and cultural development, explores solutions to national and world issues, and advances its reputation among its peers.

STUDENT LIFE

New Student Orientation

Orientation provides new students with a taste of university life. While prospective students meet with college deans and their advisors, register for classes, and learn about the university resources that will soon surround them, they also get their first peek into what it means to be a UL Lafayette Ragin' Cajun.

A full 9 to 5 day gives incoming students a glimpse of parking on campus, fumbling with a campus map, walking in the hot sun, and is the first time students interact with their classmates, forging relationships that will last up to four years. Math placement exams, Cajun Card photos, new student discussion groups, and an extensive campus tour may seem exhausting to the future Cajuns, but they are crucial pieces in the preparation for the seemingly never-ending first week of classes. Orientation attendees can unanimously agree that without the orientation process, that first day of classes would be an incredibly stressful affair.

Welcome Week

At the beginning of each fall semester, the University campus becomes a welcome center for students, faculty, and staff. Beginning on Sunday Aug. 19, the Office of Orientation provided students, both incoming and returning, with exciting events to get acquainted with and engaged in the college experience. Incoming students were invited to participate in the New Student Convocation held at the Cajundome Convention Center. Doors opened in the early afternoon, where the most eager of students were greeted with free t-shirts. The Convocation, featuring speaker President Savoie, marked the official academic entrance to the community of UL Lafayette. Encapsulating the spirit of South Louisiana, students were then treated to the hospitality of an old-fashioned cookout.

On the ever-daunting first day of classes, students were put at ease with warm doughnuts, a gift from those wishing to fully prepare students for the challenges awaiting them.

Block Party

Welcome Week ended with a bang on Friday, beginning with a free breakfast in the quad for all students. The Block Party, the major highlight of the week, kicked off midday. A great way to let loose after a tough first week, the party provides music, games, free merchandise, and an opportunity to meet new people. Though pouring rain marred this year's change of location to St. Mary Street, all who attended were in agreement that the Block Party was a successful cap on the first week of classes.

Get on Board Day

Midweek, students were encouraged to get involved with Get on Board Day. Held in the quad, the event is designed as a recruitment service for those students seeking more from their university.

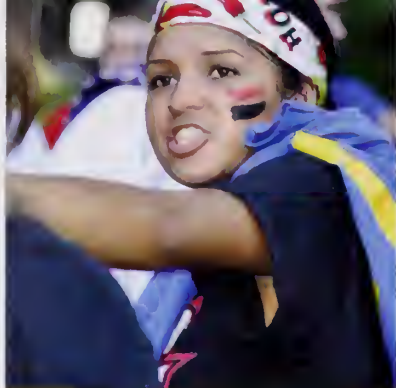

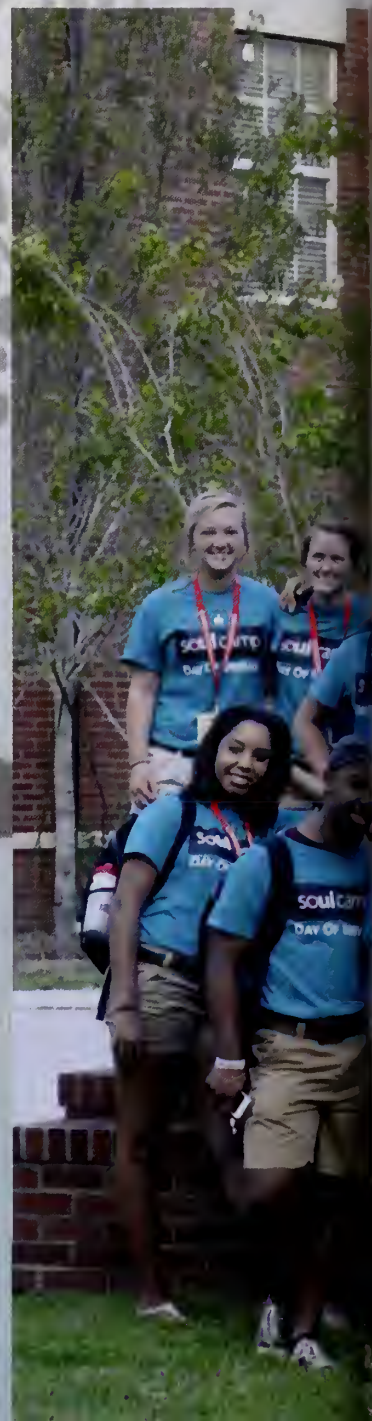

Fan Day

The Cajundome buzzed with people and excitement as the Ragin' Cajun Athletic Department hosted their annual Fall Sports Fan Day on Sunday, Aug. 26. Students, community members and children alike got in free for the chance of meeting with various Ragin' Cajun teams. The evening began at 5 o'clock, starting with a grand entrance of the athletes and staff while the band, cheerleaders, and Ragin' Jazz stirred the crowd with music and cheers. Along with performances from each of these teams, fans got the opportunity to meet and greet the members of each team, as well as get autographed rosters and schedules. The inspiring Coach Mark Hudspeth moved the crowd there with talk of victory and spirit. The evening was a promising reminder that the year was only just beginning.

Service Outreach Unity Leadership CAMP

SOUL Camp is an optional four-day overnight camp for new students interested in interaction and involvement beyond the mandatory orientation. The camp focuses on leadership skills and the building of relationships between new students and faculty, staff, and upper class mentors. Fun activities paired with educational guest speakers make a huge impact on those wishing for a little more in their transition towards the University. SOUL Camp attendees boast higher GPAs later in their college career than the average student and feel they are better prepared for leadership. This should be no surprise, as they have learned from the incredible student mentors that put on the event.

*A*n attraction for many new and continuing students at UL to "pass a good time" can be found at the annual 2012 Ragin' Roar. Packed with students, faculty, and the Ragin' Cajun community, fans get pumped up for the upcoming sports seasons.

Ragin' Roar, which usually kicks off the first football game of the year, was postponed in August due to Hurricane Isaac. The delay didn't stop students from pouring into the Quad Sep. 27 to get a first look at the diverse group of athletes representing the various sports teams at the University. Ragin' Roar revealed the spirited qualities marking the University as home of the Ragin' Cajuns. Cheer competitions, motivating speeches, athletes strutting the stage, as well as University President Savoie paying the event a special visit completed the energized evening. As the 2012 New Orleans Bowl Champions took the stage, led by their fierce leader, Mark Hudspeth, there was no question that the students are behind this team. The volume in the Quad rose as Coach Hud took the stage and pumped the students up about the upcoming game and season. The Pride of Acadiana Marching Band led the students in the UL fight song, which was sung with tenacity and pride. UL cheerleaders and the Ragin' Jazz team performed as well. Additionally, Chris Reed and DJ Digital from Hot 107.9 radio station brought the music to keep the party going. As students and faculty spilled out of Ragin' Roar, there was no question that everyone was ready for the upcoming football game, but most importantly, they felt proud to be Ragin' Cajuns.

Ragin' Roar

Competition for the most spirited student groups was another highlight of the Roar. After conquering the crowd with their signs and chants, Alpha Omicron Pi sorority won the prestigious 2012 Golden Trash Can award.

UL Lafayette President Joseph E. Savoie, Ed.D joined former dorm counselors, resident assistants, and community assistants at the Taft Dedication ceremony to celebrate the completion of two new residence halls. The Taft Street Halls' fall dedication marked the end of a major component of the University's Master Plan. Over one hundred students, faculty, and community members gathered to hear a brief history of the dorms from Jay Bell, President of the Residence Hall Association.

During the ceremony, President Savoie lamented of his days as a dorm counselor and on-campus resident. His job as counselor was reportedly earned after he made numerous visits to the Dean of Students as an undergraduate student. He further commented he was appreciative that former University President Dr. Ray Authement had the vision to tear down the McCullen-Voorhies hall. Savoie lived there as a student and humorously claimed that the building's dismantling meant that "there would be no more evidence." Savoie continued that while the University's Master Plan addresses current housing needs, he wanted to honor the past by naming the new constructions after previous dorms. Charles Perry, managing partner of the Ambling University Development Group who constructed the dorms, commented, "nothing makes a larger impact on a student than a quantum leap in the quality of where they live." Current Housing Director Lisa Landry echoed this experience, reflecting on when her parents dropped her off at Denbo Hall 30 years ago, never realizing that her life was about to change for the better.

Serving as the perfect home away from home, UL's newest residence facilities, Bonin and Corona Halls, opened their doors this fall. Overlooking the serene Rose Garden complex on campus, the dedication ceremony provided participants and onlookers a chance to experience the peaceful atmosphere dorm residents enjoy as they step out for a stroll, rush to class, or hang out with friends.

The fall ribbon cutting ceremony celebrated the modernization of campus housing. This two-year, $100 million housing project transformed dorms into a modern living/learning environment. The new "neighborhood concept" of housing students together by class level is unique among university students. The Rose Garden, which is located next to the Student Union, caters to freshmen on campus and provides a host of amenities. Student support services housed in Randolph Hall gives residents access to a weight room, game room, classrooms, and a kitchen. Tutors will also be available to support the projected 1,000 freshmen students. The construction of Bonin Hall was part of the re-invigorating of on-campus housing at the University. The Rose Garden ceremony represented one of many objectives that have been accomplished as part of the University's "Tradition, Transition, Transformation" strategic plan.

Dormitory Dedication

Festivals Acadiens & Créoles

*W*hen it comes to festivals, no one knows how to have a good time like the Lafayette, Louisiana community. This year, the 36th celebration of Festivals Acadiens et Créoles was one nobody wanted to miss.

Held in its usual location at Girard Park, the October festival was once again the world's largest Cajun festival. As visitors walked through the park, they were sonically embraced with the sound of zydeco music and bombarded with the smell of Cajun food and a cultural view of times past.

Friday night kicked off the festival with a Fais do-do and Saturday brought about a full day to enjoy everything Festivals Acadiens et Créoles had to offer. The crawfish boats were a culinary hit, while Geno

Delafosse and French Rockin' Boogie brought zydeco music to life from one of the many stages in Girard Park.

Cajun cultivation was displayed for participants who meandered through crafts, music, and food booths, aiding in an understanding as to why our culture is set apart. Great joy was on the faces of many as they watched older Cajuns teach younger generations their heritage through dancing. Closing out the festival was the long-awaited performance from icon Wayne Toups & ZydeCajun, leaving festival-goers with a deeper and richer appreciation for the Cajun culture and its historical impact on the Lafayette community.

HOMECOMING WEEK

University of Louisiana at Lafayette's Homecoming Week is full of festivities giving students, alumni, and the community the opportunity to celebrate their beloved school. This year, Homecoming took place October 1-6.

The week kicked off on Monday with a cake giveaway and "Good Luck" banner signing at Guillory Hall, followed by a rousing karaoke contest. On Tuesday, students enjoyed a carnival in the Quad, while local businesses and schools vied for the honor of most-decorated UL Lafayette fans in the Paint the Town Red competition. Campus organizations' donations of canned food made Wednesday's Cajuns Can Care food drive a success. Students showed their Ragin' Cajun spirit in Parc International at Thursday evening's Yell Like Hell, hosted by local radio station Hot 107.9.

Friday's activities included a special Homecoming pep rally edition of Downtown Alive with a performance by 5th Avenue, the Pan-Hellenic Council's step show at Blackham Coliseum, and the Beaux Arts Ball hosted by the College of the Arts. Before Saturday's big game, the Alumni Association hosted the Ragin' Road Race 5K, an open house, the Homecoming parade, and a tailgating party. Saturday erupted in a satisfying 41-13 Ragin' Cajun victory over Tulane University, appropriately wrapping up a week of Ragin' Cajun celebration.

Queen KIMBERLY NEWVILLE

Kimberly Newville, a junior majoring in nursing, reigns as the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's 2012 Homecoming queen. Newville was nominated for the Homecoming Court by Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. She is a member of Phi Mu and was voted the outstanding member of her pledge class. She was also nominated for UL Lafayette's Outstanding Sophomore award. Newville has served as a member of the Student Orientation Staff. She represents the College of Nursing and Allied Health Professions on the Student Government Association and serves on the Student Appeals Court and on the University Program Council. She is a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity. Other volunteer activities include participating in the Relay for Life and assisting with Special Olympics.

Newville holds a 3.4 GPA. She plans to attend Graduate School at UL Lafayette to obtain a master's degree in nursing and to ultimately become a nurse practitioner. She is the daughter of Bethany and Randy Newville of Lafayette, LA.

HOMECOMING COURT

Dobrielle Gatlin was nominated for the Homecoming Court by the University Program Council. A sophomore majoring in mass communications–broadcasting, she holds a 3.4 GPA. She was asked to join Alpha Lambda National Honor Society and was awarded an SGA scholarship for two semesters. Her university activities include serving as a SOUL Camp student mentor and a member of the University Program Council. Gatlin is in the process of forming the Black Women Leadership Association. She is the daughter of Danyelle and Reynard Scroggins of Gloster, LA, and Dwight and Quantina Gatlin of Logansport, LA.

Victoria Lane was nominated for the Homecoming Court by Phi Kappa Theta. A junior majoring in marketing, she has a 3.4 GPA. Lane is co-captain of UL Lafayette's Ragin' Jazz dance team. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Lambda Honor Society and participates in the Games of Acadiana and in the Acadiana Down Syndrome Association's Buddy Walk every year. Lane was chosen to represent UL Lafayette in the Athlon Sports Sideline Spirit National College Football Competition. Also, she was invited to represent UL Lafayette's Spirit Program at UL Lafayette football recruitment meetings. She is the daughter of Ashley and Wendy Lane of Lafayette, LA.

DOBRIELLE GATLIN

COURTNEY LEBLANC

VICTORIA LANE

ASHLEY MUDD

Courtney LeBlanc was nominated by Spicy Cajun Micreaux to serve on the Homecoming Court. A senior majoring in exercise science, she has a 3.2 GPA and plans to attend physical therapy school. LeBlanc is a member of Phi Mu, Rho Lambda Greek Honor Society, Order of Omega Honor Society and the Kinesiology Professional Association. She has been a SOUL Camp student mentor and represents the College of Education as a member of the Student Government Association. Her university activities include a mission trip to serve the poor in Costa Rica that was conducted by Our Lady of Wisdom Catholic Church. LeBlanc is the daughter of Madeline and Wayne Leblanc of Lafayette, LA.

Ashley Mudd, a senior majoring in sociology, has a 3.9 GPA. She was nominated for the Homecoming Court by the Student Government Association. She is president of SGA and a member of Phi Mu, which named her the New Greek Woman of the Year in 2011. Mudd served on the Student Orientation Staff, was a SOUL Camp student mentor and is a member of Blue Key Honor Society and the Student Leadership Council. She coordinated a St. Jude Children's Hospital fundraiser that collected over $20,000 and a male beauty pageant for the Children's Miracle Network Hospital that raised more than $10,000. Mudd is the daughter of Joseph and Annette Mudd of Abbeville, LA, and Suzette O'Connor.

Preview Days

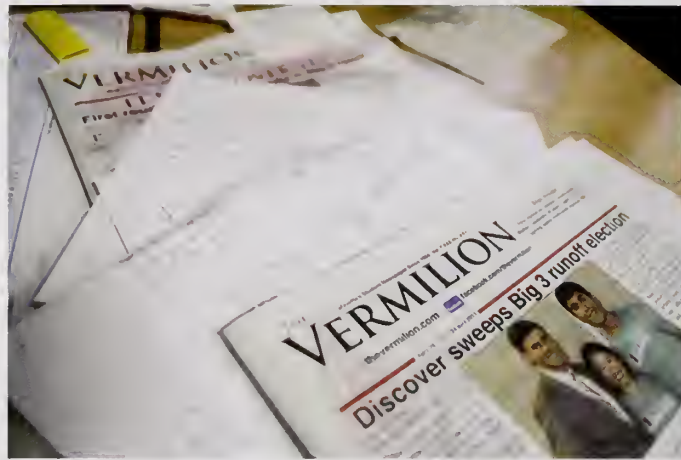

*W*hen high school students are making a decision about college, they need convincing as to why they should choose one school over another. Preview Day is the exact solution for high school seniors to see why UL Lafayette is such a unique school and also a premier choice.

Preview Days occur during both the fall and the spring semesters, and they give students many opportunities to see firsthand the many perks of being a Ragin' Cajun student. One of the best parts about Preview Days is that they give prospective students a chance to meet and talk with current students that share their interests. Preview Day activities include an academic and extracurricular fair, as well as walking tours and bus tours of the University's campus. There are also information sessions on scholarships, TOPS, financial aid, honors, and housing, so students can be prepared for the transition from high school to the independence of college life.

For students who are undecided on which route to take at UL Lafayette or would like to get more familiar with their future major, Preview Days include an opportunity to preview UL Lafayette's academic colleges and meet with faculty. Prospective students are able to easily schedule their date for a Preview Day on UL Lafayette's website, and up to 500 students are allowed to register for each session.

The Vermilion

There are countless sources of information on college life on campus. This information allows students to make informed decisions during their college career as well as form valid opinions on the college experience. The University newspaper, The Vermilion, provides a weekly student-driven outlook on student life at UL Lafayette.

The Vermilion covers topics ranging from Student Government Association reports to local music reviews in addition to being the only college newspaper in the United States to offer both a religious and secular column. The university newspaper is constantly producing thought-provoking articles featuring interviews with faculty and staff in its weekly edition as well as breaking news on their recently-active website.

Editor-in-Chief Elizabeth Rose spearheaded an award-winning staff by transforming the Vermilion into a productive and professional atmosphere in which staff members thrived. Managing Editor Mike Francingues rose to the occasion of replacing former Managing Editor Ashley Hinson on short notice, but although the dynamic changed, the focus did not. Copy Editor J.P. Fonte and Sports Editor Katie de la Rosa rounded out the supergroup of journalism students who were dedicated to providing an accurate representation of news for their readers. Although there is still the occasional angry letter to the editor, The Vermilion remains a major contribution to life at UL Lafayette.

After 26 years of serving UL Lafayette legendary burgers and lunch plates, local hotspot Campus Copies closed its doors for the final time February 28. Located at 206 E. St. Mary Blvd., the Ragin' Cajun staple was located in the center of campus and was an established part of life on campus.

The student body was shocked to hear of one of its landmark hangout spots disappearing, noting the friendly staff and inviting atmosphere Campus Copies provided along with a convenient place to print.

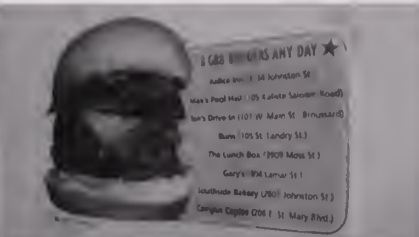

"I was really surprised to hear that Campus Copies is closing," said Lindy Muse, a senior biology major. "It has been open for so long and has always served excellent food, as well as being a friendly place to hang out. I hate to see it go." In addition to shutting down Campus Copies, the student body lost the new frozen yogurt shop, Orange Leaf, who occupied the space adjacent to Campus Copies for only one year.

Contrary to popular rumors circulated about campus, Master Plan architect Steve Oubre confirmed the university did not buy the property. For a quarter of a century, Campus Copies made delicious food with a smile and employed over 80 UL students. Although it is physically gone, the memories of the beloved campus cornerstone linger in the hearts and minds of Ragin' Cajuns past and present.

University Ring

UNVEILED

*T*he University's first official ring was unveiled this year during a Ragin' Cajuns home football game. The ring is available for alumni and students who have completed 90 credit hours as a token of the hard work and dedication that come with scholarship. President Savoie donned the ring in front of fans in an exhibition of the ring's articulate representation of the pride and achievement that surround the University.

Following the procession of the rings at the football game, and an amazing come-from-behind win against Western Kentucky, students, alumni, and fans left Cajun Field and joined together at Cypress Lake to participate in Rock the Swamp. This first annual event was open to all students, especially those who had purchased senior college rings.

In a laid-back atmosphere students mingled around the swamp and swapped stories about the highlights of the game. After enjoying a concert from high-energy Band Camp and a complimentary meal, all gathered to observe a new ritual: President Savoie hoisted a water-tight container filled with student rings and placed it into the Cypress Lake. Overnight, members of the UL ROTC guarded the University rings. Those who surrendered their rings to the swamp were finally commemorated as recipients the next day at a special ring ceremony held at Angelle Hall.

SCHOOL of MUSIC CONCERTS

*T*he University of Louisiana at Lafayette's College of the Arts boasts an impressive lineup of both student ensembles and guest concerts throughout the calendar year. Jazz combos, wind and brass ensembles, and even a new traditional music ensemble perform free of charge to students. Musicians work hard rehearsing week in and week out on top of the other curricula they are required.

The UL Lafayette Wind Ensemble is made up of fifty students auditioned and invited to what the department calls its top concert band. The Symphonic Winds and Concert Band put on multiple concerts a year, while the University's Symphony Orchestra mixes professionals from the community with the youth of the University. From the Halloween Concert to the Operas and Chorale performances, the well-attended events offer music students a chance to play in front of audiences while receiving course credit.

UL Lafayette's Jazz Ensemble performs big band pieces at local high schools and regional jazz festivals in addition to on-campus concerts. Four Jazz Combos bring instrumentalists together under the direction of an instructor to play and improvise over traditional standards and modern pieces. The groups perform at the University and locally.

In keeping with the culture and tradition of South Louisiana, the University now offers a program with a Traditional Music Ensemble. Students interested in Cajun, French, or any traditional brand of music learn from some of Louisiana's best and world-renowned musicians as guests to supplement the instruction.

Whether attending a concert for a chance to blow off some steam, to whet the appetite for some great music, or to simply fulfill a class requirement, the School of Music's concerts are essential to the UL Lafayette experience.

Chi Alpha

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Chi Alpha is a Christian organization purposed to bring college students at the University into an authentic relationship with Jesus, and to become His disciples. Chi Alpha has been offering weekly events and resources to students for many years. The fellowship connects students to a variety of activities they are interested in getting involved in; varying from intramural sports teams, hikes, and community service. Chi Alpha has something for everyone!

Every Wednesday Chi Alpha offers a "Free Meal with a Message". This is a time for students to play a game or two, hear a challenging message, and eat a FREE home cooked meal! Thursday Night Live is an exciting time of worship and teaching from God's word every Thursday night in Wharton Auditorium. Students come to listen to the Chi Alpha house band and inspiring Pastor.

*Our
of Wisdom*

CATHOLIC CHURCH
& STUDENT CENTER

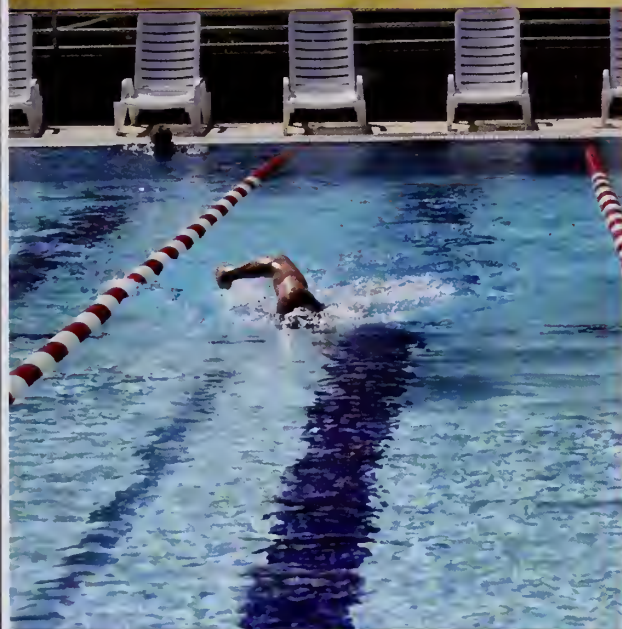

Centrally located on campus at the intersection of McKinley Street and St. Mary Boulevard, Our Lady of Wisdom Catholic Church and Student Center is place where students can find fellowship on campus and serves as a home away from home for many. While Our Lady of Wisdom is a Catholic Church, students from all religious backgrounds are welcomed at Wisdom to seek a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.

One major way that Wisdom seeks to evangelize and spread God's word on campus is through FOCUS, the Fellowship of Catholic University Students. FOCUS is a nationwide program that, through the work of FOCUS missionaries, invites college students into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. After coming to UL Lafayette's campus in 2011, FOCUS currently has a team of five missionaries stationed at Wisdom, who take part in group outreach events, weekly Bible studies, campus evangelization, and daily Mass and prayer.

Besides the work of FOCUS, the staff and ministry team members of Our Lady of Wisdom offer many ways for students to stay connected and grow spiritually throughout the semester. Mass is offered every weekday at noon, with the Sacrament of Reconciliation taking place 30 minutes before Mass. On the first Friday of every month, Wisdom hosts Lunch with the Lord, a free meal and opportunity for fellowship following noon Mass. Every Wednesday night, Wisdom also puts on 501, which consists of praise and worship, adoration, and talks on various spiritual topics. About Wisdom, sophomore Casey Hollier says, "I am so thankful to have a community of wonderful people that challenge me to learn more about the Catholic faith and share what I know with the world."

*I*f you haven't experienced the ultimate workout/leisure building at the University, then it's about time that you try to make your way towards Bourgeois Hall. It centers around three main areas of emphasis: the Intramural Sports program, club sports, and open recreation. Intramural sports are great for those that don't like the overly competitive nature of collegiate sports, but with the same intense workout factor and teamwork facets. There's flag football, volleyball, tennis, basketball, baseball/softball, badminton, and much more. Also plenty of club sports students can participate in include: bowling, ice hockey, judo, lacrosse, ultimate Frisbee, among others. Each respective club has its own website and the information needed if you're interested. More than just sports wait at Bourgeois Hall. There's a swimming pool, weight room, and indoor track. Aerobics classes are offered, along with pilates and yoga. Archery, golf, and indoor cycling circle out the wide array of activities that can be found at UL's state of the art gym. No student ever leaves feeling dissatisfied.

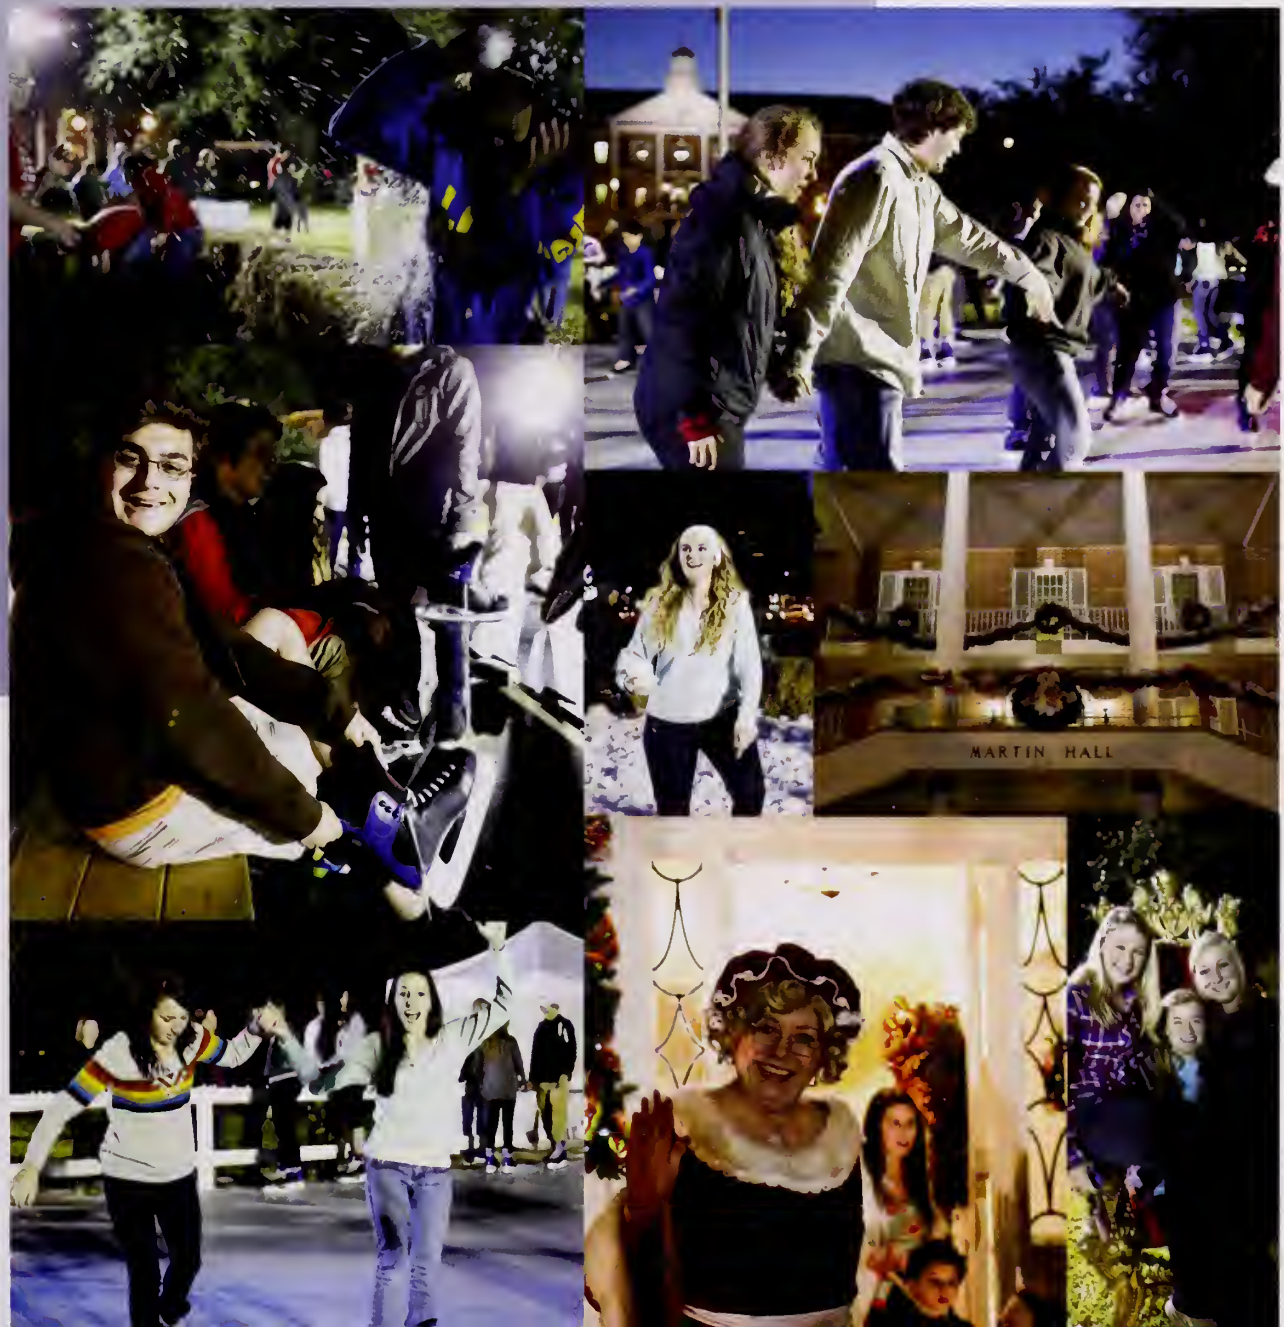

SNEAUX DAY

*U*L Lafayette's campus can hardly be considered a prime spot for winter-related activities, but "Sneaux Day" transformed the traditionally tropical climate into a "feaux" winter wonderland. This event offered many Louisiana natives a glimpse of a winter they rarely have the chance to obtain and most likely will not see again until "Sneaux Day" rolls around again with the next Christmas season.

Students gathered outside among the twinkling Christmas lights of Martin Hall for the annual SGA event to ice skate amid fake snow flurries or vent their pre-finals frustrations in a constantly ferocious snowball fight. The University even opened up the doors of its President's House for its very special winter guests, Mr. and Mrs. Claus, who posed for pictures with students, faculty and the attending children.

The line for photos with Santa was only rivaled by those waiting for free food and jambalaya near the ice skating rink. Whether drawn by the food, Santa sighting or snow fights, Sneaux Day boasted another successful student turnout in 2012.

Campus Construction

The 2012 and 2013 semesters transformed UL's campus into a construction zone that will last for the next 15 years. Sidewalks were closed, new parking lots and residence halls emerged, and the old student union was gutted in lieu of the University's dreams of renovation.

The $23 million project displaced the former student union services throughout campus. The cafeteria moved to Guillory Hall, while a temporary bookstore was erected near the Conference Center.

The new student housing, appropriately labeled the "Rose Garden," was the result of the demolished Baker-Huger, Bonin and Evangeline Halls to make room for more than 800 students. Harris, Randolph and Buchanan Halls were also renovated to increase the school's campus resident availability by 40 percent.

Beginning in 2013, UL now also offers students the novel opportunity to participate in living/learning communities for honors, nursing and engineering students or for those who are simply interested in pursuing leadership skills and healthy lifestyles.

Even Bourgeois Hall updated its gym with a new weight room and rock climbing wall, but not all campus changes were as celebrated as this.

The controversial remodeling of Fletcher Hall left many students and faculty with a bad taste in their mouth, but regardless of the future agreed-upon facade, the building will gain more than 20,000 extra square feet and various damage repairs.

MASTER PLAN

*F*irst approved in November of 2012, UL Lafayette's Master Plan was presented to faculty, staff, and students on February 18, 2013. The result of a yearlong public effort, the Master Plan is a comprehensive plan for the physical growth of UL Lafayette's campus over the next two decades. The foremost vision of the creators of the plan is that these improvements to the campus will allow the University to become one of the most comfortable and inspiring academic institutions in the country.

Besides general improvements to the campus, the Master Plan's purpose is to unite three adjacent landmasses into a cohesive University District. The Main Campus, pictured in the map above in red, is the area that most students are most familiar with, including the quad and the buildings that house the bulk of the University's classes. Most students are also familiar with University Common. Pictured in green above, University Common is the area from Johnston Street to Eraste Landry Road that houses the University's athletics program, intramural sports, fraternity and sorority houses, and various research buildings. An area that students may not be familiar with is the St. Landry Corridor, which is real estate pictured above in yellow that includes the former Lourdes Hospital. If the University is able to acquire property in the St. Landry Corridor, the Master Plan then calls for these three campus zones to be linked by a vehicular, bicycle, pedestrian, and bus/rail thoroughfare network, merging the campus into a cohesive and easily traversable district.

Though the Master Plan will have to adapt through the years, depending on what proposed changes actually are made, it is certain that the administration and planning committee, as well as students, envision a very bright future for UL Lafayette's campus.

Festival
de Mardi
2013 Gras

*M*ardi Gras 2013 was the usual marathon of lavish balls, extravagant parades and a barrage of plastic beads. Throughout February, floats manned by costumed revelers marched up and down the streets of Lafayette, Scott, Broussard and Youngsville. The themes ranged from kid-friendly festivities and dog parades in the roped-off region of Downtown Lafayette to full-fledged Mardi Gras Ball and Krewe extravaganzas in the Cajundome.

Whether attending the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de Lafayette, notorious for its drag parade, or the prestigious Krewe of Gabriel balls, Mardi Gras presented the usual options for Lafayette locals and students to have some fun.

Courir de Mardi Gras

Perhaps the most culturally alluring parts of Mardi Gras, and maybe the least well-known, are the Courir de Mardi Gras events scattered throughout South Louisiana's smallest communities. These "runs", which often take place on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, fill the fields of towns such as Eunice, Mamou and Church Point with costumed and masked revelers who wander from door to door in search of gifts and gumbo ingredients. A staple of these runs are the chicken chases at each stop as part of the ingredient-gathering tradition for the post-run meal.

The main purpose of the run is mostly mischief, but if participants break the simple rule of removing their masks—Le Capitaine and his cohorts will surely come running with their whips. The tradition, complex yet welcoming, affords another option for UL Lafayette students looking to be a part of the South Louisiana culture that surrounds them.

KREWE of ROUX PARADE

*T*he University made its annual mark on the Lafayette Mardi Gras scene with the Krewe of Roux campus parade on February 7th. Starting on Rex Street in front of Griffin Hall and ending at Vermilion Hall, the Krewe of Roux festivities offered students the chance to participate in their very own Ragin' Cajun Mardi Gras experience.

The campus parade filled St. Mary Street with makeshift floats in the form of cars and convertibles and upheld the long-standing tradition of more than 25 years.

UNIVERSITY WEBSITE REVAMPED

*I*n an effort to promote the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's "branding initiative" to "enhance the search engine optimization" for its official website, the university announced the retirement of ULL.edu as an alternative address in favor of Louisiana.edu.

The announcement was made via email from the Office of Communications and Marketing on May 31. According to the Office of Communications' website, The Office of Communications and Marketing and the Office of Information Technology banded together to form a potent partnership to "redesign, refocus, and reignite UL Lafayette online, starting with the University's main site (Louisiana.edu)."

The revamping of the website is intrinsic with the University's brand and is the most accessible marketing tool. The Office of Communications' website cites the brand as shaping "how each of us communicates what we do, what we stand for, and the impact we have on others." The new website features a clean interface and easy site navigation in addition to providing a glowing representation of student and faculty life on campus. A "consistent visual identity" provides users of the site with a superlative online experience.

All official websites for the university will be integrated into official UL templates formed by the Office of the Department of Communications and the Office of Information Technology. With the website overhaul, The Office of the Department of Communications aims to deliver a "strong, cohesive message" to unify brand initiatives and share the successes of the university.

Living Learning

Pride of Acadiana

If you have ever attended a UL Lafayette football game, then around halftime you have experienced one of the most entertaining and electric school bands in the nation with a fitting name: the Pride of Acadiana. At every home football game, every member, from the Waterguard to the Wind and every other category in between, puts on unforgettable performances that establish the band as its name entitles.

This year, the band underwent a significant change: after so many years of wearing the same uniforms, 2012 saw the Pride of Acadiana sporting new garb, chosen by a public vote. Also this year, the Pride performed in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, which they previously appeared at in 2005, earning initial international recognition.

Not only is the Pride of Acadiana an incredible group of band members, but they are a unique and dedicated family that plays as if they've known each other their entire lives. Anyone attending UL would be able to tell you themselves that the Pride of Acadiana will uphold their legacy for years to come!

Every year, UL Lafayette celebrates its outstanding organizations and individuals with the Ragin' Recognition Awards Banquet. This year, the banquet was held on April 17 in Angelle Hall. Awards given included organizational awards such as the New Student Organization of the Year, the Membership Development Award, and the Outstanding Philanthropic Program of the Year. The most prestigious recognition of the ceremony, the Organization of the Year award, is divided into two categories: university funded and non-university funded. These honors were given to Americorps and the Kinesiology Professionals Association, respectively. The most prestigious individual award given during the ceremony is the President's Leadership Award, presented by Dr. Savoie. This year's winners were Lainey Landry and Ashley Mudd.

GREEK WEEK

Greek Week is a week for members of the Greek System at UL Lafayette to join together and raise money for a greater cause. This year, the Greek Council put on an event filled week that started on a Monday with coin wars. All of the Greek Organizations were divided into five teams, each team was given a theme of a decade. The teams competed throughout the week earning points and raising money for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

After the thrilling Monday on Rex street collecting coins, Tuesday's event was the Greek Games. During the Greek Games, the teams competed in different field events, such as a three-legged race and wheel barrel race along with others. The teams continued to compete on Wednesday at Greeks Got Talent, hosted in Angelle Hall. Each team choreographed a dance/skit to match the decade they were assigned to. After completing most of the hands on activities, to finish off the competition there was a "Give Back Night" at Agave on Bertrand.

The overall winners of Greek Week were announced at Greek Awards which were held later that month. The winning team was the '70s team, comprised of Alpha Omicron Pi, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Zeta Phi Beta. Although the '70s team won, the hard work of each team helped to raise an enormous amount of money for charity. Greeks were able to meet others from different Greek Organizations, and learn more about other organizations. The end of Greek Week was celebrated at Up Till Dawn finale. The week was a huge success thanks to Greek Council and the Greek Week Chair, Ashley Mouton.

*R*elay for Life is a national event sponsored by the American Cancer Society in which participants honor and support those who have fought or dealt with the battle against cancer. The University hosted Relay for Life in the quad as all were welcome to the night of reflection, celebration, and awareness.

The pleasant night began with some live music and games for attendees, while the three main components of Relay for Life followed. The Luminaria Ceremony invites attendees to personalize bags that are then lit from within as a tribute to those affected by cancer. Laps around the track of the quad are then taken by cancer survivors, those who have lost a loved one to cancer, and then all who have been in some way affected by cancer. The ceremony is a powerful indicator of the extent of cancer's reach into our lives. The Fight Back Ceremony then propels the sentiment forward into committed action towards what can be done individually in the fight against cancer.

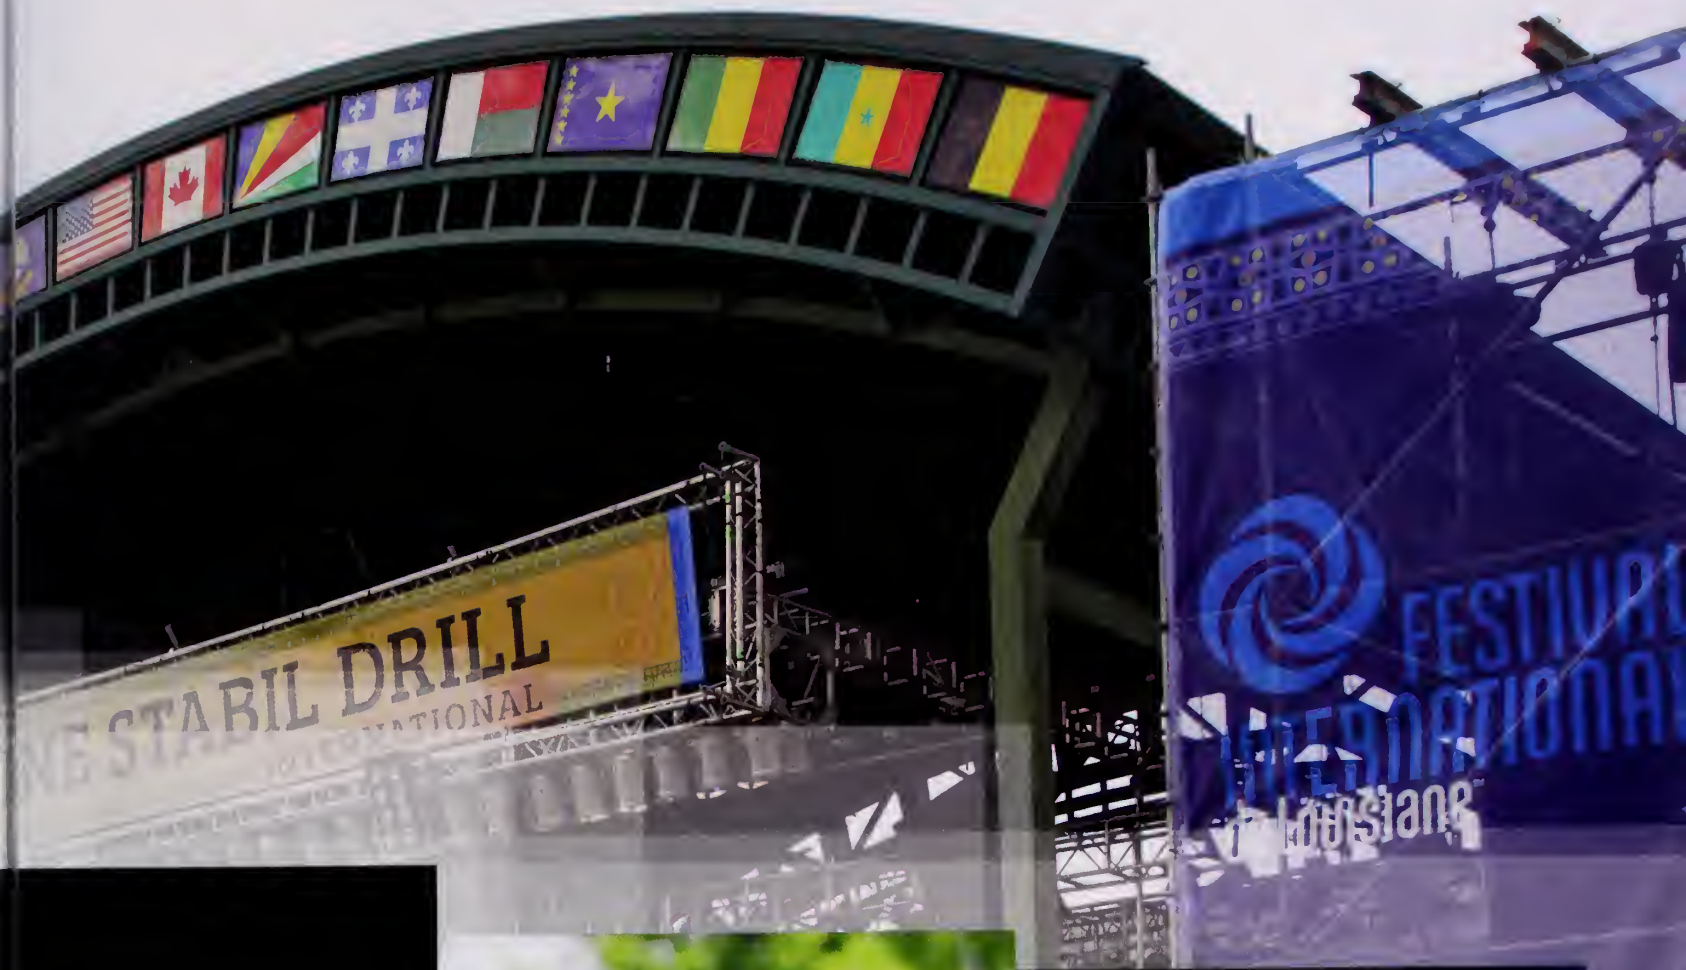

Relay for Life

Festival International de Louisiane

Whether Lafayette natives or transplant freshmen at UL, locals flocked downtown for Festival International 2013 from April 23-27. The five-day, free music festival filled every corner and crevice of downtown Lafayette from Jefferson to Congress Street with food, music and countless opportunities to make new memories.

Festival offered attendees endless options for musical exploration. Whether watching world-renowned musicians The Wailers, local darlings like Royal Teeth, Marc Broussard and imaginelAM or the growing indie act Chic Gamine—the tune of each stage only contributed to the communal vibe of a city bonded together by music.

Though music is the main draw of Festival, the array of food is its strongest rival. While wandering from stage to stage, attendees munched on meat pies and boudin while sipping on sangria and daiquiris. Clusters of clothing and jewelry vendors from countless regions also offered a welcome distraction from the crowded stages. Some festival-goers managed to muster the energy and brush off their hangovers to complete Courir du Festival 5K run on April 27, Saturday morning. After completing the 5K, runners were greeted with jambalaya and beer to usher in another long day at Festival.

Until the next Festival International, Lafayette locals proudly boast their 2013 pins as a reminder of the strong heritage and bond over a mutual Louisiana love.

Fête de la Terre

English, architecture and science departments represented the diversity of the coastal restoration movement on UL Lafayette's campus during the Fête de la Terre Earth Day celebration on Friday, April 19. Fête de la Terre, an annual event organized by the University's Office of Sustainability, presented this year's theme as "Green Education - Green Jobs." Curious students walked around the lawn on the corner of Hebrard and East St. Mary Street during the four-hour event. Attendees engaged in plant raffles or set their own environmental movement in action through an eco-bike, which powered a series of lightbulbs as participants peddled.

A Career Services booth was located next to representatives of the Horticulture Club and English department in what seemed like a flourishing, environmentally conscious career fair despite the overall tough economic climate. Representatives of larger conservation organizations also set up booths to inform students on ways to help preserve Louisiana's coastline.

UL architecture graduate students Abi Comeau and Liran Timiansky represented successful students in the "green field" with their display of an eco-friendly home model. Comeau and Timiansky collaborated with four other students to design the "Cour House", a Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEAD) certified three-bedroom home that will appear on Jackson Street this summer.

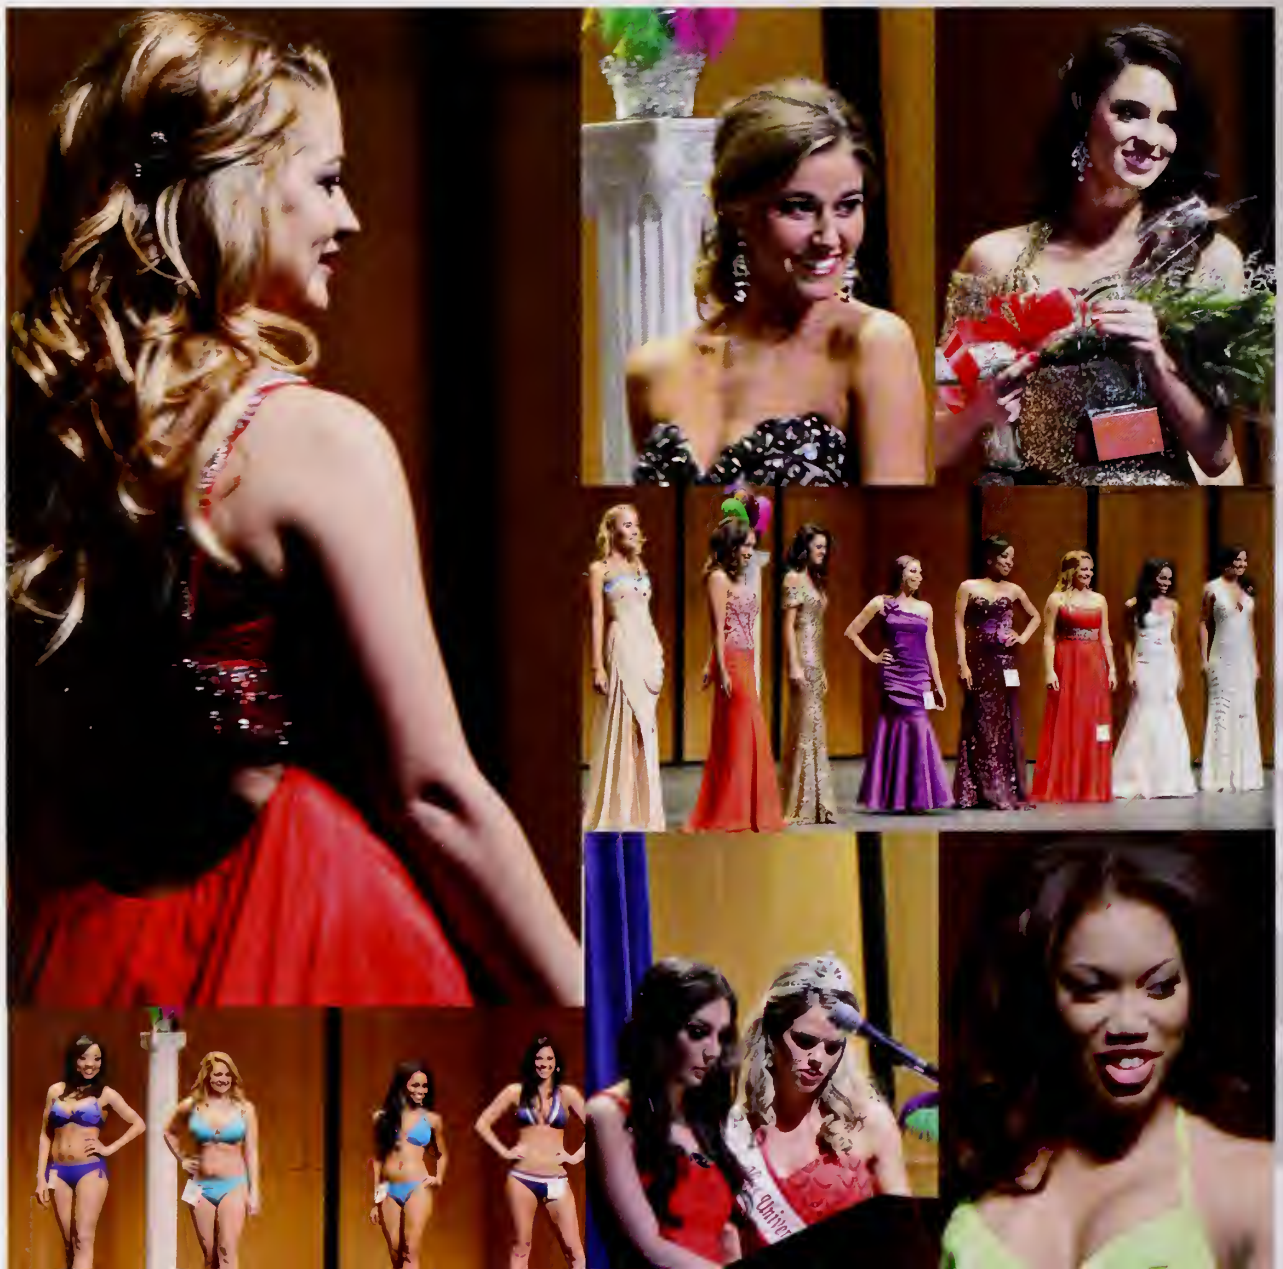

To represent UL Lafayette is an honor earned by few. One must embody and promote the University's values and standards. The university conducted a student-wide competition in search of one young woman at the annual Miss UL pageant and found her in junior public relations major Adrienne Clark.

This year's pageant, held on March 28, was Brazilian Carnival-themed and boasted three categories: a bathing suit competition, an evening gown competition, and a question and answer session for the top five which determined the three runners-up: senior engineering major Bliss Kelley was third runner-up; sophomore communications major T'keyeh Krystal was second runner-up; and sophomore marketing major Krista Troussant was first runner-up.

Despite the strong competition, Clark came out on top as the overall winner as well as winning the award for best evening gown and placing in the photogenic and swimsuit divisions. Clark's triumph is in part due to the extensive list of groups she participates in, including the Black Women Leadership Association, the University Program Council, the Student Alumni Association, the Public Relations Student Society and the Relay for Life planning committee.

Clark will represent the University at the Miss Louisiana USA 2014 pageant in October. When Clark was crowned Miss UL 2013, she proved she would excel in epitomizing what it means to be a Ragin' Cajun on campus and beyond.

Lagniappe Day

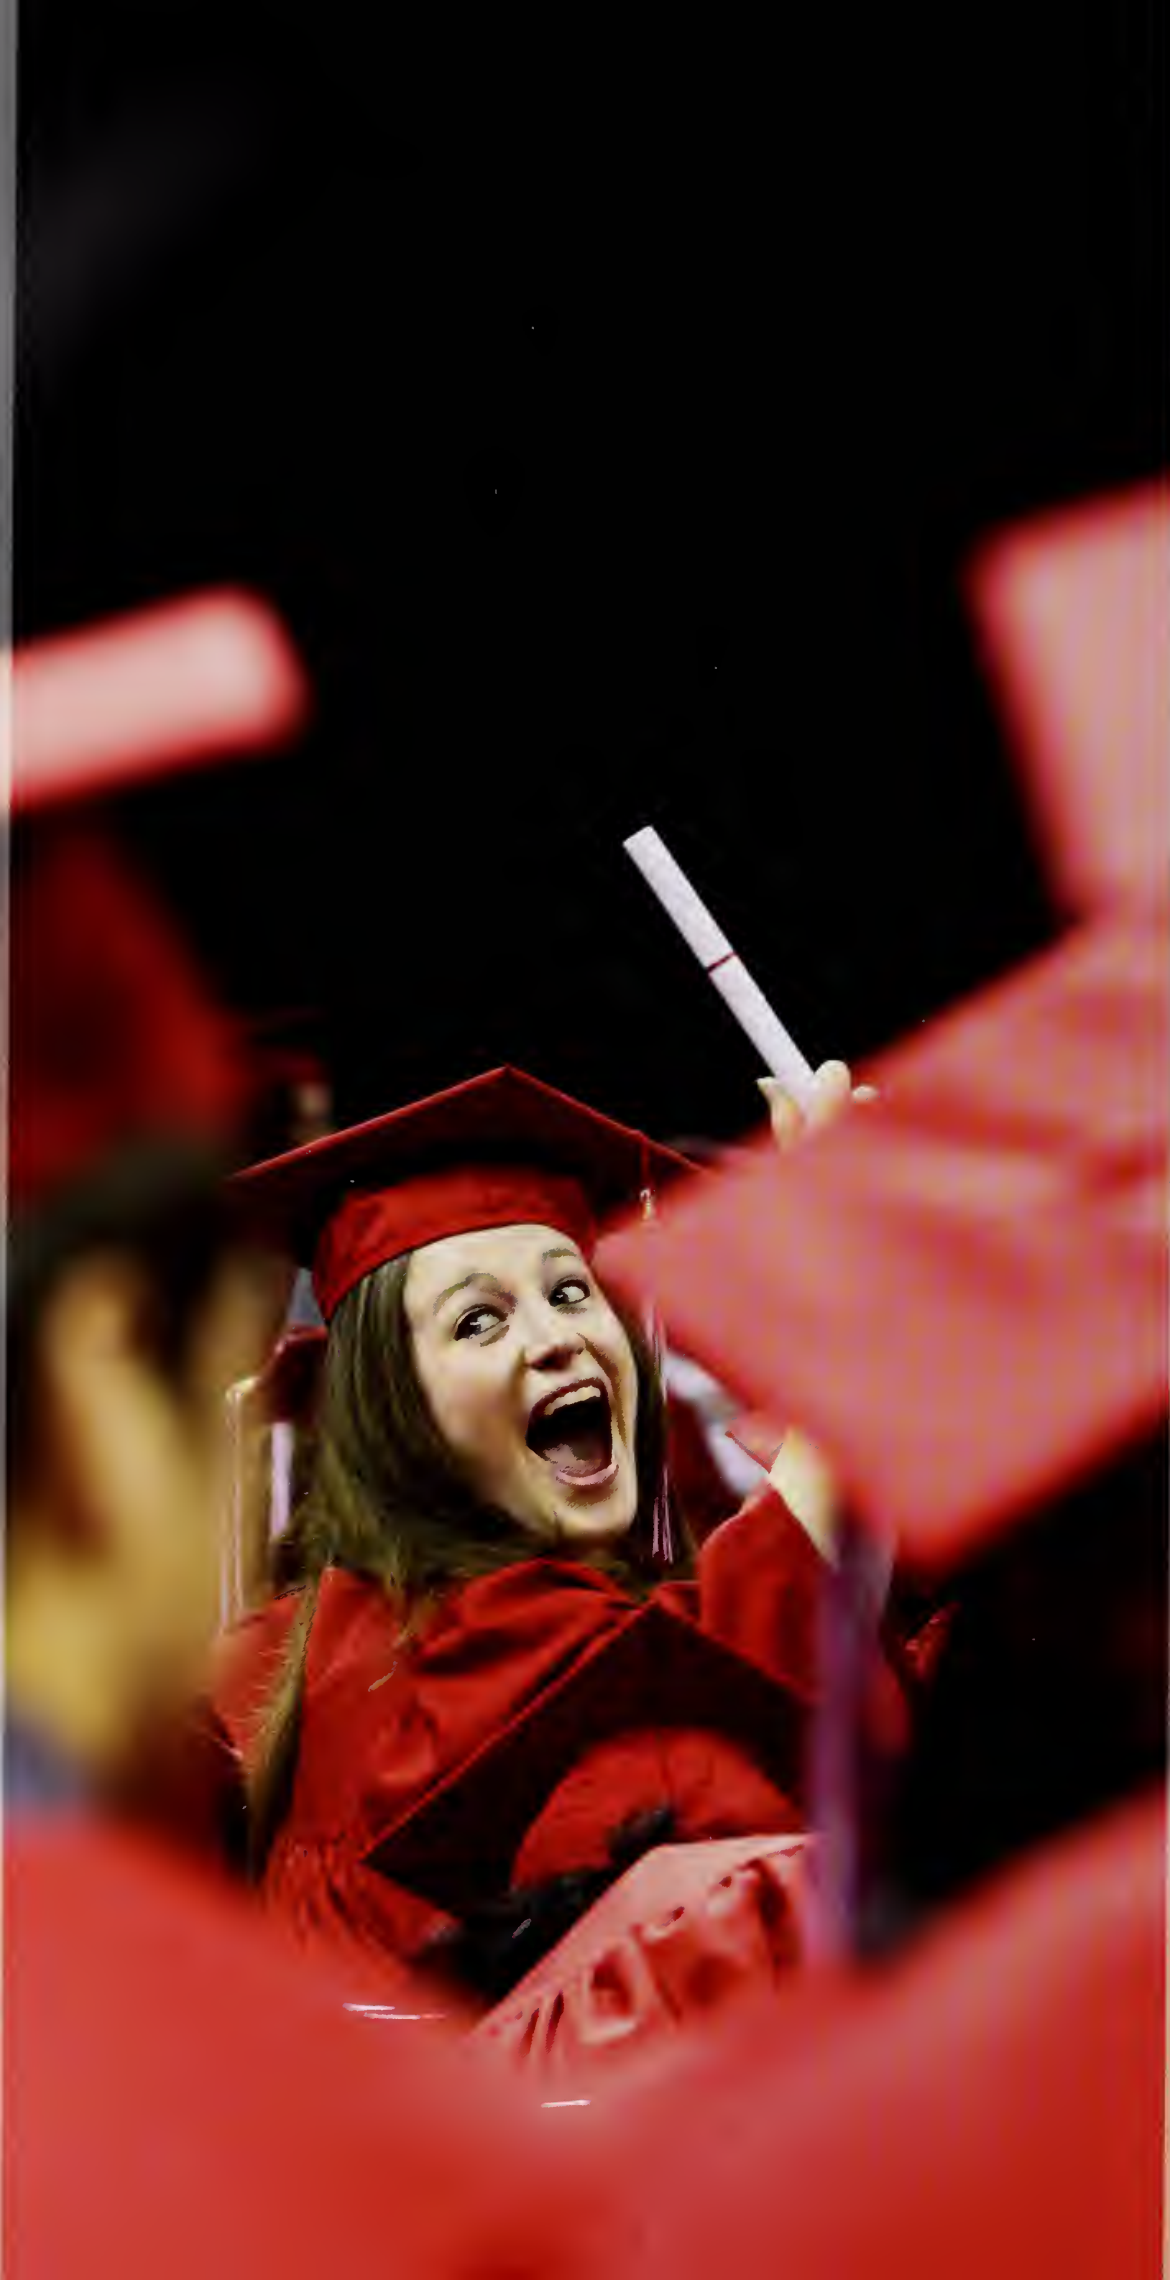

Every spring, Lagniappe Week gives students a little something extra: an excuse to celebrate before finals week and the semester's end. This year's festivities took place the week of April 22.

The theme of Lagniappe Week 2013 was the popular "Keep Calm" slogan, with variations appropriate to each day's activities. Monday, for example, was themed "Keep Calm and Hoop On" to accompany the night's basketball game in the E.K. Long Gym. A dive-in movie at the pool at Bourgeois Hall on Tuesday merited the catchphrase "Keep Calm and Dive On," followed by Wednesday's canoe races in Cypress Lake – "Keep Calm and Row On."

The week culminated with Lagniappe Day on Thursday, featuring live music, games, a cake giveaway, and a crawfish boil. Each year the University boils over 10,000 pounds of crawfish that students get to enjoy for free, though the long lines and hot sun might drive a hard bargain for some. Students were encouraged to "Keep Calm and Peel On" – a useful reminder as students enjoyed a few stress-free days before finals.

Graduation

That special time in a college student's life whenever all of their years of hard work, sweat, procrastination, late nights, and anxiety come to pay off is graduation day. It designates the time in a person's life where they have the tools that they need to go forth into life with their heads held high and a diploma to show for it. And no better place to have on your college resume than the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

The fall 2012 ceremony not only coincided with UL Lafayette taking home their second straight New Orleans Bowl trophy, but it unveiled new commencement regalia and the University ring as well. Two minor but welcome additions to the traditional commencement ceremony saw over a thousand graduates hearing their names called. The spring 2012 ceremony saw an even larger number of UL students getting their degrees. Taking place on May 18 at the Cajundome, exactly 1,479 students officially became graduates and subsequently, alumni of UL. There's no better feeling than finally being given recognition and praise for all of your determination and perseverance throughout your entire college career. The best of luck to all.

Students of the UL Lafayette College of the Arts are in constant contact with the creative process and the physical manifestations of their dreams. Investing countless hours in their changing home, Fletcher Hall, students' work can be found strewn throughout the building much like the clothes thrown about in their messy rooms.

Accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design, the department is led by Dean Gordon Brooks. The College of the Arts offers students several concentrations: Visual Arts, Architecture and Design, or Music and Performing Arts. The department even offers students the opportunity to partner with UL Lafayette's College of Education to pursue a future career in art education.

The Department of Visual Arts offers students a number of opportunities to refine their creative energy. Whether pursuing a degree in media art or metalwork, printmaking or painting, ceramics or computer art, students are provided with countless courses designed to help them excel. The Architecture and Design program allows students to choose between focusing on architecture, interior design, or industrial design while challenging them with creative designs and assignments. Finally, the Music and Performing Arts Department gives students the option of focusing on musical endeavors like music business, jazz studies or music media or thriving in theatre and dance. Regardless of students' artistic preferences, UL offers a wide array of programs to fit their needs.

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette's College of Education operates under the belief that education should be a seamless process from preschool to college. The College is a dynamic and comprehensive unit with outstanding faculty who focus on teaching, learning, and development of students at all levels throughout the life span. In addition to graduate school and doctoral programs, the College of Education is divided into three major departments: Curriculum Instruction, Foundations & Leadership, and Kinesiology. The College offers over twenty undergraduate degrees and seven graduate degree programs, and it also offers many alternate and add-on certifications for students who already have a degree or certification.

Student organizations under the College of Education include: A+PEL, Kappa Delta Pi, Kinesiology Professional Association, Louisiana

Association of Educators, Student Association for the Education of Young Children (SAEYC), and Student Council For Exceptional Children. The college believes that field-based learning extends concepts and practical applications beyond those possible when all training is conducted at the University. Because of this, the College is happy to partner with seven local school systems and many other field-based work sites throughout the area, in order to supplement learning on the University's campus and ensure an excellent overall education.

Through both on-campus learning and field work, students are allowed to thoroughly engage in all aspects of the teaching and learning experience, and on average, 85-90% of graduates say they feel they have been adequately prepared for their career ahead.

GENERAL STUDIES

OUTSTANDING GRADUATES:

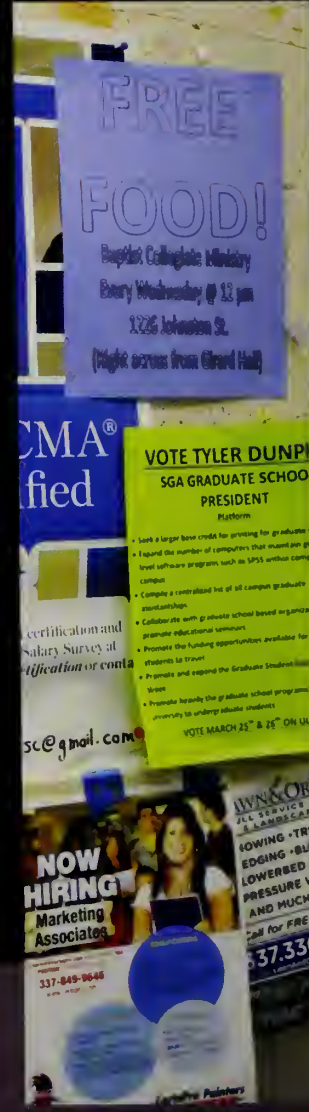

Kashia M. Vice (Fall 2012)

*A*t the heart of the higher education experience is the opportunity for students to choose a path that they find fulfilling. Centrally located in DeClouet Hall, the College of General Studies caters to those students who, for a variety of reasons, may benefit from a degree of flexibility not found in other programs offered by the University. These students enjoy the freedom to control their academic trajectories while remaining rooted in fundamental courses that encourage critical thinking and effective communication.

General Studies may also have special appeal to mature students returning to college with new interests, to those changing their majors very late in their academic careers, to students attending at night or irregularly, and to those with no particular interest in a traditional program. Perhaps a good analogy for the College of General Studies is a snack machine: take a look at what's available, and pick what's right for you.

DEAN: David BreauX

Graduate School

*T*he aim of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's Graduate School is to prepare the next generation of scholars, researchers, practitioners, and leaders in both the private and public sector. Graduate School seeks to truly challenge students by striving to create an environment that promotes scientific inquiry and stimulates the creative process. Spanning all walks of life in the academic realm, Graduate School offers about thirty degree programs, as well as non-degree programs focused simply on advancing higher education.

In many ways, Graduate School at UL Lafayette truly bridges the gap between undergraduate study and the professional world. Approximately 60% of the University's full-time faculty members are also graduate faculty, which eases the transition from undergraduate to graduate classes for students. Also, qualified undergraduate seniors have the option to begin earning graduate credit while finishing their bachelor's degree. Over 1,500 students are enrolled in UL Lafayette's Graduate School, and these students have an integral role in education at the University. While involved in the advancement of their own education and research, many also work as graduate assistants, where they have a large role in furthering the education of undergraduate students as well. As students near the end of their respective graduate programs, the University can be very involved in helping them to find a job through Career Services, so that the transition from student to professional can truly be a seamless one.

The University's College of Nursing and Allied Health Professions has been a staple at the University for decades, offering extensive preparations for students who choose to pursue a career in healthcare. Located in Wharton Hall, this well-respected program is recognized and accredited through the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and the Louisiana State Board of Nursing. The department was also named the Nursing School of the Year by the Louisiana Nurses' Foundation and the Louisiana State Nurses in 2009.

The nursing department, led by Dean Dr. Gail Poirrier, offers degrees and courses in pre-dental hygiene, dietetics and traditional nursing practices. The curriculum involves hands-on activities with life-like dummies to provide students with real-world experience in situations critical to their advancement before entering their field. The nursing department also requires that students complete five semesters of clinical work experience to prepare them for graduation. The department even offers students the chance to pursue their studies abroad in Europe, a tradition it has boasted since 1999. As of January 2013, students can pursue a Post-Master of Science in Nursing Certificate as a Family Nurse Practitioner to further their chosen preference in the field of nursing.

The College also offers five master's programs, as well as three doctoral programs.

The College of Sciences is housed in nine buildings on UL Lafayette's campus and includes classrooms, offices, and labs for teaching and research. Research extends well beyond traditional campus locations into several research centers, including the LITE Center, the National Wetlands Research Center, and the Ecology Center (CEET). While professors enjoy state-of-the-art laboratory technology at the University, undergraduate students are often employed in faculty labs for course credit, which allows for hands-on experience to further supplement their education. SGA BIG 3

PRESIDENT

*V*ery early on in my time at UL, I promised myself I would become the SGA President. Finally having the opportunity to serve the student body as President has been the pinnacle of my college career. On a personal level, this position has changed my life and my outlook on higher education. Last May, I had a very narrow understanding of what went into providing students with a quality education and college experience. Having the opportunity to serve in this position coupled with my upper level sociology courses, I have been able to drastically broaden my understanding of higher education. I had the opportunity to serve as the Student Advisory Council chair for the University of Louisiana System and also as the chair of the Academic and Legislative Affairs Committee for the Louisiana Council of Student Body Presidents. Serving in these capacities has allowed me to understand higher education from the inside out. I finally "had a seat at the table." Along the way I have accumulated both accomplishments and mistakes.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Record amount of SGA scholarship applications submitted which I believe is due to our marketing plan

Record amount of voters in both fall and spring elections

Brought Microsoft Suite to students for free: the previous administration did the real leg work for this and we just tied up the loose ends

Help make our campus more sustainable with a new printing allocation system

Partnered with Keep Louisiana Beautiful to host a campus-wide recycling and litter-abatement event

Brought forth the resolution where students voted to pass a Masterplan Advancement Program fee

Hosted a free bus trip for students to attend the highly anticipated UL vs. ULM football game

Passed a resolution to improve homecoming court selections

Actively fought to keep student loan interest rates down

Updated the SGA election code week we had David Coleman "The Love Doctor," the world famous speaker that the popular movie Hitch was based off of come to campus. We also played a movie in the Quad and had great participation by the students that seemed to really enjoy it. One of the biggest accomplishments was the passing of the MAP referendum in order to put the UL Campus Masterplan into action. Not only did the referendum pass but the voter turnout represented the second highest turn out ever for the University at the time, a record which would be surpassed in the Spring and something that we were extremely proud of. These record voting numbers represented the number one goal of our administration which was to make sure that the students were heard, that their VOICE was the one that was being brought up and represented in every meeting and every event we participated in. It was a great experience and I am thoroughly proud to have been able to serve such a great University and wonderful student body.

-Seth Stansbury

Coming into office we were almost immediately faced with obstacles in the form of our secretary retiring and the use of outdated procedures and systems within the office. We were so driven to make a difference and make sure that the VOICE of the student body was heard and well represented, however, that we pushed through those obstacles early in order to start our work. Like most Big 3 groups before us, we came in with a platform that was full of goals and ambitions that we wanted to see get done and to most they may have seemed overwhelming. With teamwork between the three of us and an absolutely amazing group of leaders in our Senate, we somehow pushed through our loaded platform and even accomplished things beyond our initial intentions. In our time in office we helped to initiate and create the new UL senior ring design and traditions, something that we would like to see continued for a long time to come and that we encourage other students to partake in as well. We traveled to ULM with many other students on an SGA sponsored bus trip to see our Cajuns come out victorious and beat ULM on their own field. We also finally got free Microsoft software free for the entire student body, something that people had been asking about for years. During our SGA

R.L. Carriers NEW ORLEANS Bowl

For the second consecutive year, the UL Lafayette Ragin' Cajuns football team made it to the New Orleans Bowl. The team sought to build on the dramatic last-minute field goal victory against San Diego State the previous year which catapulted the school to new heights athletically. For the second trip to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Cajuns squared off with the East Carolina Pirates.

The contest itself proved to be very different from the previous year, seeing the Ragin Cajuns take a 28-7 lead midway through the 2nd quarter. Soon after a string of turnovers and stalled drives, East Carolina battled back to within 10 points at halftime, with the score coming to 31-21. By this time, the game became reminiscent of the thrilling showdown that took place in the Superdome almost the same day a year ago. Back and forth, both teams traded scores until the Ragin Cajuns managed to get the upper hand late and ended the game with a field goal sealing their 43-34 victory. Soaring high, the team brought home their second New Orleans Bowl trophy in a row.

FOOTBALL

Following last year's inspired performances that culminated in a dramatic win over San Diego State in the University's first bowl game in over forty years, the Ragin' Cajuns had a very big reputation to live up to this fall. In his second season as head coach, Mark Hudspeth once again raised the bar and proved that the Cajuns can continue to be a major force in the Sun Belt Conference, while striving to impress nationally as well. The Cajuns did not fail to impress home fans this season, as they lost only once, to SBC Champions Arkansas State. After nearly upsetting then-ranked No. 7 Florida late in the season, Hudspeth and the Cajuns rallied to finish second in the SBC and to win all four of their remaining games, including a New Orleans Bowl appearance against East Carolina. Since the end of the season, eight seniors have earned spots as undrafted NFL free agents who will attend NFL camps this summer, as UL Lafayette coaches, players, and fans happily look forward to next season with great expectations.

Ragin' Cajun CHEERLEADING

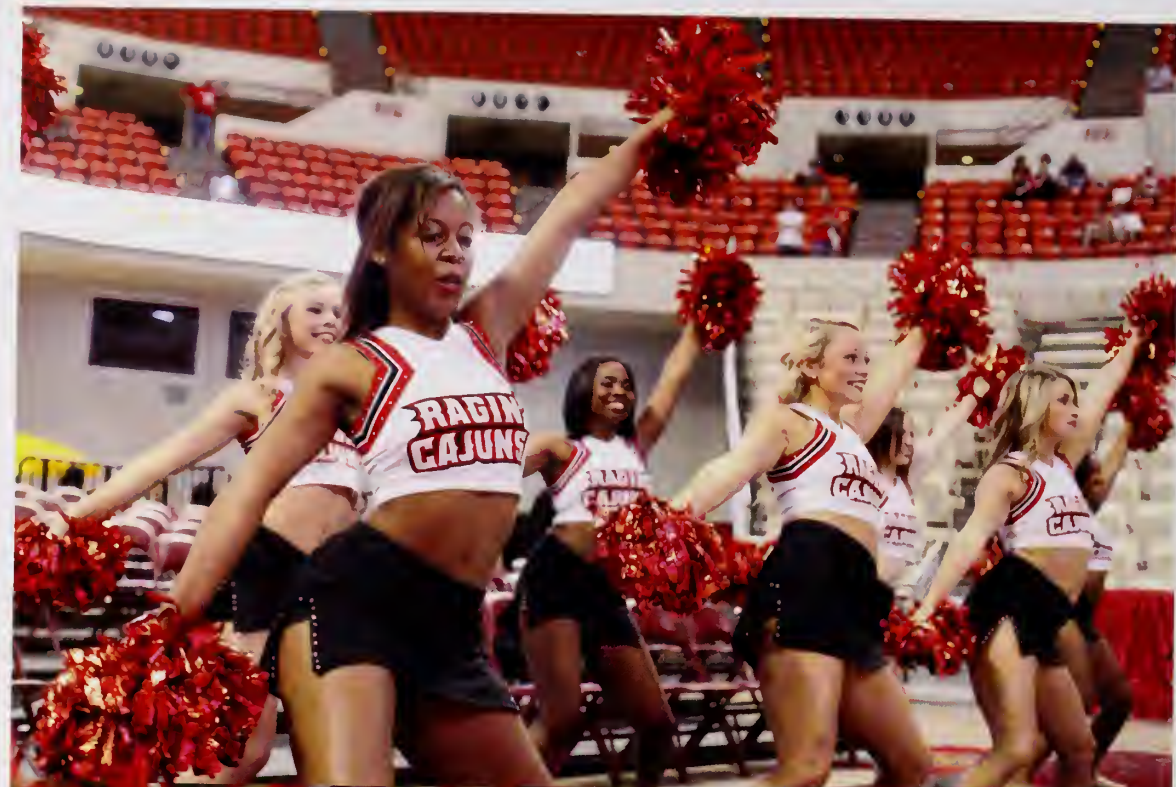

The Ragin' Cajun Cheerleaders are a coed team of students who play a huge role in pumping up Ragin' Cajun fans and spreading school spirit at home and away football games, men's and women's basketball games, and volleyball games. However, cheerleaders are found not only at athletic events, but also represent the University at alumni events, preview days, and other school events. During each summer, the squad attend UCA cheerleading camp and also put on youth cheer clinics, spreading Ragin' Cajun pride and passing on valuable skills to the next generation of Ragin' Cajuns. No matter the event, Ragin' Cajun Cheerleaders voices can always be heard loud and in unison, leading cheers as well as the Ragin' Cajuns Fight Song, as they help the fans cheer the Cajuns on to victory.

Ragin' JAZZ

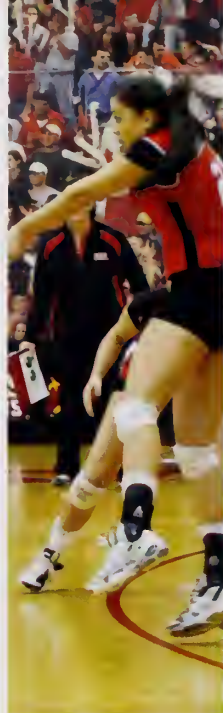

The lovely ladies of the Ragin' Jazz Dance Team grace Ragin' Cajun fans with their riveting dance moves and choreography at football, basketball, and volleyball games, as well as pep rallies, alumni events, and various campus and community public appearances. Each summer, the Ragin' Jazz attend Universal Dance Association camp, and in January they represent UL Lafayette in Orlando, Florida, where they compete for the UDA national title in Jazz and Hip Hop categories. With practices year-round, the close bond shared by these ladies is reflected in their dancing on stage, whether that stage may be the football field, basketball or volleyball court, or at various events around Lafayette.

VOLLEYBALL

The 2012 season for the Ragin Cajun Volleyball team was nothing short of record-winning. The team posted both conference and school statistics that echo the hard work and success both the girls and coaches have displayed. Finishing off the season 16-16, the last win against UNO's Privateers at home allowed the Cajuns to record their 47th victory dating back to 2010 which surpasses the 46 wins over three seasons from 1999-2001 as the most recent best three-year victories tally. This allowed the team to compete at the Sun Belt Conference tournament. Head coach Heather Mazeitis-Fontenot is the first coach to lead the Ragin' Cajuns to multiple Sun Belt Tournaments since Chris Campbell made three straight appearances from 1999-2001. The Ragin' Cajuns sported the fourth-most efficient offense amongst SBC members this season, averaging 12.95 kills per set. Louisiana leads the Sun Belt in service aces (159), with a quintet of players with 20-plus aces—Andrea Hole (32), Taylor Meade (32), Mandi Gavin (31), Lavinia Tataran (28) and Caitlyn Auxilien (21).

Also standing out is the athletes themselves. Senior Mandi Gavin was one of 16 Sun Belt student-athletes named to the all-league team. Saying goodbye to Volleyball as well is senior Blair Claypoole, the team's most efficient and consistent attacker this season with a .270 hitting percentage. Libero Caitlyn Auxilien has posted double figures in digs 26 times in 31 matches in 2012 and with 469 digs enters the SBC Tournament on the verge of becoming only the fifth player in school history to amass 500 digs in a single season.

The team, however, mourns the shocking death of teammate Sawyer Camillo—a 6-1 freshman middle blocker from Argyle, Texas. Camillo passed away unexpectedly December 22, 2012 while at home. While unable to play this first season because of a back injury, she helped the team at every step of their successful season. "Sawyer was an extraordinary young woman," Louisiana head coach Heather Mazeitis-Fontenot said. "Her easy smile and generous demeanor made her a fast friend to all of us. She was eager to lend a hand and had a true love of being Ragin' Cajun."

Women's BASKETBALL

*T*he UL Lafayette Women's Basketball team faced the 2012-2013 season under new head coach Garry Brodhead. A Lafayette native, the Brodhead name is synonymous with excellence in basketball. His pedigree includes recognition as the district, parish, and Acadiana coach of the year at the high school level, and an impressive record at McNeese State where he coached the previous five years.

The team's record tells a story of a young and changing group under a new regime. The University and its supporters are confident in forward progress under Brodhead and look with promise onto the future of the program.

The 11th-seeded Cajuns held North Texas in double overtime to open their Sun Belt Conference Championship bout, a landmark game that saw women's basketball win their first tournament game in years. They then lost out to Western Kentucky University in the quarterfinals. Keke Veal led the team with an average of 13.1 points per game over the season.

BASKETBALL

Men's

*M*en's Basketball ended the season winning six of their last eleven games. A strong finish to a spotty season left head coach Bob Marlin attributing early struggles to his young team still learning to play together. After beating North Texas, the 8th-seeded Cajuns failed to advance against Middle Tennessee in the Sun Belt Conference Championship. Season standouts Elfrid Payton and freshman Shawn Long ended their years accoladed with All-Sun Belt Conference first team honors and SBC Freshman of the Year award, respectively. Long also received second-team honors in both the SBC and National Association of Basketball Coaches all-district team, while Payton was all-district first team honoree. The young stars are ushering in a new era of UL Lafayette basketball as the team builds for next year.

SOFTBALL

For the first time in 13 years, the Cajuns started the season without a Lotief as head coach. Stefni and Michael Lotief held duties as co-head coaches for the past 10 seasons, both stepped down before the start of the 2013 season. Manning the helm was Megan Granger, who is no stranger to the Ragin' Cajun ways, and saw the team post a 192-48 record in her four seasons with the team. Because of Stefni Lotief's impressive career and commitment to the Cajuns, she was awarded the 2012 Outstanding Alumni Award. Lotief spent 12 seasons as head coach— the past 10 as co-head coach alongside her husband, Michael Lotief. Not a month into the season, Michael Lotief returned as head coach, looking to add to his then-overall-record of 500-122.

The team underwent an initiative to raise awareness and give back to the community. The fall season's game against LSU-Eunice in October was dedicated to Breast Cancer Awareness. The team raised money and encouraged their fans to wear pink. In conjunction with the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, they hosted a canned food drive for their final game of the fall season on Saturday, Nov. 10 against Galveston. Both events were successful and reinforced the Ragin' Cajuns as winners both on and off the field.

After impressive runs in both the Sun Belt Conference Tournament and the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, the Cajuns lost the decisive third game in the series against Michigan in the Ann Arbor Super Regional. Despite the loss, Lotief and his team drew nothing but positives from the tournament and the season. As is expected with the Ragin' Cajuns softball team, records were broken, standouts were acknowledged, and an outpouring of community support was garnered. The team loses five seniors, Megan Waterman, Nerissa Myers, Brianna Cherry, Sarah Draheim, and Matte Haack. Cherry and Draheim were named National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Americans, second-team and third-team, respectively.

Head coach Tony Robichaux's challenge for his 19th career season with a team of many new faces was to establish a new identity and improve on last season's losing record. New faces included not only players but also coaching staff, as Lance Harvel joined the team as an assistant.

The Cajuns thrived during regular season play and received a postseason spot in the NCAA Regional at Baton Rouge; their last regional appearance was 2010. The team entered the regional with one of the country's top offensive units, ranked Top 10 nationally in average, runs, hits, doubles, home runs, and slugging percentage. The Cajuns finished an impressive season 43 and 20, and as well as the team did on the field, their accomplishments in the classroom do not fail to impress either. Baseball collectively held over a 3.3 GPA during the fall season, setting an all time record for the sport.

Freshman Blake Trahan was named to the 2013 Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America Team as well as Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year. Caleb Adams and Dex Kjerstad were named first-team selections to the 2013 American Baseball Coaches Association South Central All-Region Team, while Austin Robichaux and Tyler Girourd received second team honors.

After a long and frustrating season, the Ragin' Cajuns golf team carded a final round score of 15-over to finish in seventh place at the 2013 Sun Belt Golf Championship at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail's in Muscle Shoals, Alabama. "This was a disappointing end to a disappointing year," head coach Theo Sliman said. "I think I have learned a lot as a coach, and I think just the same the players have learned a lot from this year. I am proud of the three seniors. They have represented this university well both on the course and in the classroom." Senior Brandt Garon notched his third top 10 performance of the spring after carding a 71 (-1) on the final day to finish in a tie for seventh at four-over (220). The other seniors leaving the Cajuns include Ethan Savoy from Lafayette, and Vora Yohann from the British Columbia, Canada. Yohann saw his Louisiana career come to an end finishing in a tie for 31st at 12-over par.

Though these leaders are hanging up the clubs, the Cajun golf team promises a bright future. Freshman Ross Davis posted his third top 25 finish of the spring placing in a tie for 22nd at nine-over (225) to close out the conference Championship. The entire team looks forward to making a strong showing next season.

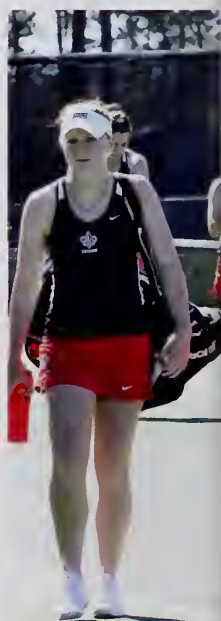

For the first time ever in Ragin golf history, the Louisiana Classics Golf Tournament was broadcasted live from Oakbourne Country Club on RaginCajuns.com. "I think this is huge for an event that has been going on for 28 years," head coach Theo Sliman said. "To be pioneers in the collegiate golf world and bring live video to our event is something that I couldn't be more proud of. I think aside from the major conferences and the national championship, this will be the first time you will see live video at a regular season tournament."

Women's TENNIS

*I*n 2013, the women's tennis team turned around last year's 4-12 record to finish with a solid 14-12 record and a Sun Belt tournament win under third-year head coach Greg Harkins. The squad went up against one of the most balanced slates that the women's team has seen in several seasons, including matches against high-ranked competition. "I decided to take the program in a new direction this season," Harkins said. "This past fall was a period of initiation and bonding for the team. The game is a journey similar to life and it was important for the women to learn core values of time management, accountability to themselves and the program. It was also important for them to understand the meaning of giving back to those who support and help us as we learn and grow from our experiences in the program."

The team saw six freshmen join its ranks this season with many in the starting lineup. Two in particular, Juliette Clement and Melissa Burckhardt, stood out in doubles competition. They became the first Ragin' Cajun women's tennis doubles team to earn an Intercollegiate Tennis Association national ranking in over a decade, coming in at 79th and ending the season with a perfect 13-0 record. "We are really proud of their efforts and they are very deserving of this ranking," head coach Greg Harkins said. "Melissa and Juliette have worked very hard to get where they are, and they are both team players. They give complete effort each time out and that has paid off for them this year."

Overall the Cajuns did very well this season, both on and off the court. Women's tennis registered above a 3.0 cumulative squad grade point average for the sixth straight semester – the longest active streak of any sport. The squad finished the season with a winning home record, including a five game win streak at home early in the season.

Men's TENNIS

Cajun courts have never been a more welcoming nor professional facility than they are now. Thanks to their new face lift, the courts have seen vast improvements, both aesthetic and athletic. A new digital scoreboard graces the pavilion along with renovations to the fan stands. Now almost 1000 Ragin Cajun fans can enjoy the tennis conquests taking place on home turf.

The enhancement of the training area, however, pales in comparison to the growth and success of the men's tennis team itself. After an impressive fall season, the team jumped up one spot in the ITA Division 1 Men's Rankings coming in at Number 70 nationally. "2012 saw us ranked inside the top 75 for much of the year which has really helped our program gain national and international recognition," head coach Mark Jeffrey said. The team posted a 15-win season for the second year in a row. Losing out in the Sun Belt Conference Semifinal, the Cajuns' season was all but a disappointing one.

Junior Rick de Groot and freshman Wynan Garner were given All-Sun Belt Conference Team honors. Teammates Hunter Johnson and Damian Farinola were selected as members of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association All-Louisiana Tennis Team, making the second team while de Groot was given first-team honors.

The 2012 Ragin' Cajun Women's Soccer Team entered their season under Head Coach Scot Wieland for the eighth time, posting their first 10-win season the previous year. They enjoyed an impressive start to the season, with four wins in six games. Sun Belt Conference play proved more difficult for the Cajuns, however, with the 2-6-2 record telling the story of some hard-fought matches against tough opponents. The season finished on a high note with a breast cancer awareness match resulting in a 2-1 victory over in-state rivals UL Monroe. Seniors Amanda Moorefield, Erin Lynn, Gayla Foster, Melissa Minton, Kayla Henrie, Maci Andrus, and Delaina McGee were honored before the game. Sophomore Hayden Gibson led the team with five goals and three assists.

*H*ead Coach Lon Badeaux began his second season with the Ragin' Cajuns Track and Field team in a strong position, with the Men's Indoor team ranked highest among its Sun Belt competitors. Strong individual performances and group efforts from both the Men's and Women's Indoor teams saw the Ragin' Cajuns heading to the Sun Belt Conference Indoor Championship with a strong foundation. UL Lafayette finished fifth place overall at the meet, with Myles Melancon and Albert Fournette collecting medals in the shot put (gold and silver, respectively), Michael Vani finishing as runner-up in the pole vault, Justin Jones grabbing second in the 55m dash, Sander Maes collecting third in the heptathlon, and Morgan Breaux placing third in the women's 55m dash.

The Cajuns kicked off the outdoor season hosting the Louisiana Classics, with Melancon continuing to shine in the shot put category, finishing first place. In late March, junior Ta'Shania Bean was named the SBC female field athlete of the week after impressive performances in the long jump and triple jump. The outdoor championships saw the Women's team finish sixth place, a promising sign from a young team. The Cajuns finished the season with Lindsey Harmon and six others named to the 2013 All-Louisiana Track and Field Team.

CROSS COUNTRY

With the 2012 Cross Country squad consisting of mostly freshmen, the season's results offer an exciting light to a promising next few years. A less-than-ideal start under rough weather conditions saw the Ragin' Cajuns looking to improve in their annual home invitational. The men's team swept the competition, with nine performers in the top ten, senior Zachary France leading. The women's team posted a strong finish as well, with Anna Katherine Devitt taking second while five of her teammates also placed in the top ten. UL Lafayette found similar results at the next meet, with the men's team claiming the team title as Matt Rice came in fourth. Devitt again led the women who each finished in the top 25.

The Sun Belt Conference Championships saw three freshmen in Matt Rice, Cole Stafford, and Anna Katherine Devitt post times in the top 20. The men's team finished in sixth place, marking the highest ranking since the conference championship in 2004. Matt Rice earned third team All-Sun Belt honors. The NCAA South Central Regional was a strong finish for senior Zach France as his last collegiate race. Anna Katherine Devitt was named Cross Country Freshman of the Year by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

In 1908, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. became the first Greek-letter organization established by and for Black women. Her roots date back to Howard University, Washington, D.C. where the idea for formation was conceived by Ethel Hedgeman Lyle of St. Louis, Missouri. She viewed the Sorority as an instrument for enriching the social and intellectual aspects of college life by providing mental stimulation through interaction with friends and associates.

Through the years, Alpha Kappa Alpha's functioning has become more complex. After her incorporation as a perpetual body in 1913, Alpha Kappa Alpha gradually branched out and has grown from one undergraduate chapter to an international organization with a membership of more than 250,000 women in over 900 chapters. Membership consists of ladies of distinction and exemplary character who excel in scholarship, leadership and service. Undergraduate and graduate chapters are located throughout the United States, West Africa, the United Kingdom, the Bahamas, the Virgin Islands and Germany. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is the epitome of class, grace, and finer womanhood.

The Epsilon Beta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. was chartered on the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's campus on December 16, 1967. Epsilon Beta is a 4 Star chapter at the University. Members of Epsilon Beta have participated in multiple service projects such as Habitat for Humanity, Emerging Young Leaders Program, Boys & Girls Club, and numerous others. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is a wonderful sisterhood committed to community service. Solving the problems of our community is a very serious matter, and nothing is more rewarding than doing this with the love, cooperation and support of the talented members of the sorority.

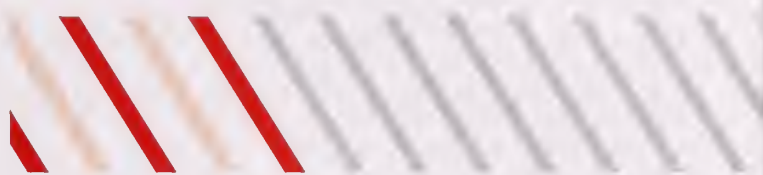

Nationally, Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority is known for the motto "Exceed the Expectation", and UL Lafayette's Delta Beta Chapter, founded in 1956, has known no exception to this phrase. The sisters of Delta Beta participated with other Greek philanthropies throughout the year while also raising money for their own philanthropy: arthritis, juvenile arthritis, and arthritis-related diseases. The ladies of Alpha Omicron Pi also participate in Greek Community events such as Greek Week where they placed 1st overall this past year. The Delta Beta chapter was awarded a 5 star chapter and their President, Carlyn Lipscomb was named into the UL Greek Hall of Fame.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

On October 31st, the ladies of Alpha Omicron Pi focused their efforts on Trick or Treat for Arthritis, their fall semester philanthropy project. They went door to door trick-or-treating for donations in the neighborhoods of Lafayette. Throughout this project the Delta Beta members raised over $1,800 in donations, while also raising awareness about arthritis. The Delta Beta chapter also hosted an event on March 14th, Pi Day, where they sold baked goods and spread awareness about their philanthropy. In the spring, Alpha Omicron Pi has a philanthropy project named Strike Out Arthritis, where they collect donations and pledges for every strike during UL Baseball and Softball games.

Members of Alpha Omicron Pi are active on campus and are also members of organizations such as Student Orientation Staff, SOUL Camp, Circle K, Student Government Association, UL Peer Mentors, UL Marching Band, UL Wind Ensemble, Diamond Darlings, and many others. The women of Alpha Omicron Pi will continue to exceed the expectation when serving their sorority and community.

On December 4th, 1906, a collective group of African Americans known as the "Seven Jewels" came together at Cornell University to form Alpha Phi Alpha. Alpha Phi Alpha was the first intercollegiate Greek-letter organization established by African Americans. Although it was the first fraternity founded by African Americans, Alpha Phi Alpha now has over 185,000 members and has been open to men of all races since 1940. Today there are over 680 active chapters in the Americas, Africa, Europe, Caribbean, and Asia.

The fraternity evolved into a service-based organization, providing leadership and service during the Great Depression, World Wars, and civil rights movements. The group addresses social issues such as AIDS, urban housing, and other economic, cultural, and political issues affecting people of color. The Martin L. King, Jr. National Memorial and World Policy Council are programs of Alpha Phi Alpha, and it jointly leads philanthropic programming initiatives with March of Dimes, Head Start, Boy Scouts of America, and Big Brothers Big Sisters of America.

The Zeta Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha was chartered at UL Lafayette in 1968. It has met the fraternity's aims of manly deeds, scholarship, and love for all mankind through its participation in such local programs as Habitat for Humanity, Brother's Keeper, Big Brothers

The Zeta Xi chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha holds the highest GPA among fraternities at UL Lafayette. In addition, the chapter is the only organization from the "Divine Nine" to be classified as a Five-Star Chapter by the Office of Greek Affairs. Alpha Phi Alpha stays active during UL Lafayette's spirit weeks, along with other activities around campus. Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity is comprised of a strong group of men who seek to excel in school and enrich their lives through service and leadership activities.

Delta Delta Delta Sorority was founded on UL Lafayette's campus in 1957. Since then they have made a name for themselves around the Lafayette community by raising money for different philanthropies. For the past 15 years Tri Delta has adopted St. Jude Children's Research Hospital as their philanthropy. Nationally, they raised $10 million in years. Philanthropy is a very important part of the Delta Delta Delta community here on the University's campus.

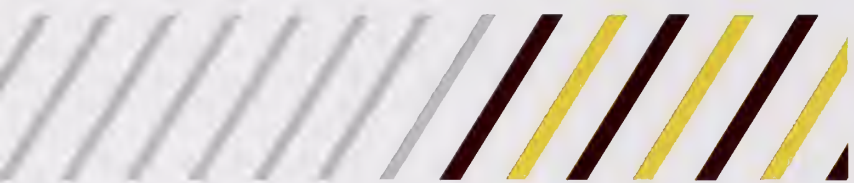

Sisterhood is a blessing, and it is something that the Tri Delta's here hold close to their hearts. There is a national award given to one Tri Delta nationally, named the Sarah Ida Shaw Award after their founder. This year's recipient was the Phi Nu chapter's own Lainey Landry. There was a celebration in her honor, and the National Tri Delta President came to their meeting. This was a huge honor not only for Landry, but for the chapter as a whole.

Tri Delta participates in philanthropic work in the community along with on campus. The ladies of Tri Delta strive for excellence and have a blast doing it.

Since 1865, Kappa Alpha Order has provided the foundation for an elevated way of life and made a significant impact in the development of young men. KA's primary values include chivalry, respect for the lady and pure womanhood, honor, integrity and reverence to God. Additionally, KA's primary philanthropy is the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). The Order seeks to create a lifetime experience that centers on duty, character, and gentlemanly conduct while encouraging the development of a responsible citizen that benefits today's society.

Kappa Alpha Order at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette was originally a local fraternity called Alpha Sigma Kappa (ASK), founded in 1931 at what was then called Southwestern Louisiana Institute.

On December 2, 1960, ASK received the approval from other KA Louisiana Chapters and was presented their charter as the Gamma Phi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order on UL Lafayette's campus.

In 2012-2013, Gamma Phi maintained a strong presence on the University's campus by participating in Walk for MDA and Greek Week. Also, The Order hosted KA's annual MDA Golf Tournament, MDA Fish Fry, and assisted the Jacob Crouch Foundation with several events. Gamma Phi managed to raise thousands of dollars for the benefit of the Muscular Dystrophy Association in 2013.

Always following their motto, the gentlemen of Kappa Alpha Order continue to meet the challenge placed upon all members to strive for excellence in all ways of life during their college journey and onward.

Founded on the campus of Indiana University at Bloomington in 1911, Kappa Alpha Psi is a fraternity that is dedicated to higher achievement. As a model fraternity for others to look up to, Kappa Alpha Psi has many achievements to be proud of. However, the most important of all is the honor bestowed by St. Jude Children's Hospital to Kappa Alpha Psi when they renamed a wing of the hospital after the fraternity. This was a result of the diligence to raise funds for the hospital throughout each school year. To this date Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc. has donated an estimated half-million dollars to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

In the fall of semester of 1975, nine ambitious undergraduate college students sought to start a new tradition on the campus of UL Lafayette. Thanks to the determination, endurance, and desire to be a part of the illustrious Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc., along with the help and guidance of brothers from neighboring chapters, their goal was achieved, and on December 14, 1975, the Theta Nu Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi was born.

Today members of the Theta Nu chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi express and demonstrate a higher meaning of Greek unity. Members have held events with, helped orchestrate events for, and supported various organizations' activities from multiple NPHC and IFC organizations. The Brothers of Theta Nu are men who always seek to make immediate impacts whenever they set goals. Oliver Batiste was named the 2008 NPHC Greek Man of the Year, and in 2009 this title was passed on to Gavin Peters. In 2010 Cody Jones was named the Greek Man of the Year. Currently, Emanuel Harding stands as the Polemarch of the chapter as well as the President of Greek Council at UL Lafayette. The men of Kappa Alpha Psi continue to build a legacy that will be remembered many years beyond their own current ones at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

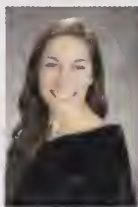

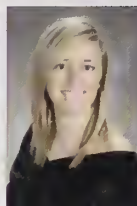

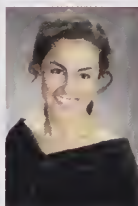

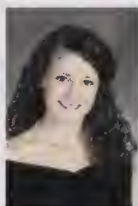

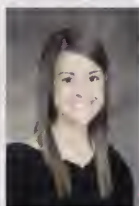

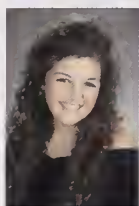

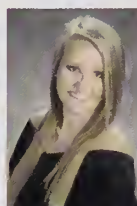

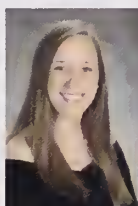

KAPPA DELTA

The ladies of Gamma Kappa Chapter of Kappa Delta Sorority strive for honor and beauty in all of their endeavors within the chapter, on campus, and in the community. Kappa Delta strives for academic excellence, and was awarded highest GPA awards for both the past spring and fall semesters. Kappa Delta alumnae donate drinks, snacks, or meals to the chapter during Finals Week to help support the members in their academics.

Kappa Delta is also very active in their philanthropy, Girls Scouts of America and Prevent Child Abuse America. The Gamma Kappa Chapter keeps busy throughout each semester supporting confidence in women and raising awareness to stop child abuse. Some events put on by the chapter this past year for the Girl Scouts of America were "Mighty Girls," which promoted the progression of how women gained independence and highlighted influential women in history. and "Healthy Eating," which focused on how to keep a healthy lifestyle by making smart food choices. Kappa Delta also puts on an event every spring for Prevent Child Abuse America known as Shamrock. Shamrock is a week-long event with a finale of a volleyball tournament that brings out other organizations, family, and friends from the community. This past semester Kappa Delta raised $36,200 during Shamrock Week.

KAPPA SIGMA

Kappa Sigma is a brotherhood founded on Four Pillars of Excellence: Fellowship, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service. These four pillars helped the Epsilon Chi Chapter excel to become one of the largest fraternities at University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Kappa Sigma was founded on December 10th, 1869 at the University of Virginia and was established on UL Lafayette's campus March 17, 1956.

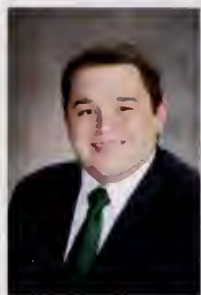

The Epsilon Chi Chapter of Kappa Sigma makes extensive efforts to support their university, their community, and put forth every effort to be better men. As a chapter, brothers compete in intramural sports and attend social events throughout the year. Many other members are involved in clubs and are very active on campus.

Through their Brothers In Action program, the fraternity has helped raise money for multiple charities and donated an ample amount of service hours to the community. The brothers of Epsilon Chi have received many top awards the past five years. They have been awarded five Founder's Awards for Chapter Excellence (FACE), three Founders' Circle Awards (making them one of the top 6 chapters in the nation), and have been in the Top 10 Philanthropy Dollars Raised two years since they have been on campus. Continuing each semester where they left off, the Brothers of Epsilon Chi strive to become better men in all aspects of life and carry on supporting the University in every way possible.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Here at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Donald Ray Bealer founded the Iota Omega chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha on May 5, 1962. They have initiated 854 men since being founded.

This past year, the men of Lambda Chi Alpha have received many awards and honors from their headquarters in Indianapolis and from the University. From their headquarters, they received the Academic Achievement Award, the Campus Involvement Award, and the Lewis A. Plourd Fraternity Education Award. The Lewis A. Plourd Fraternity Education Award is given out to those chapters that have an outstanding fraternity education program, which incorporates brothers of the chapter, associate members, alumni brothers, and a well-structured big brother program. Lambda Chi Alpha members were also recognized by the University for having the highest fraternity GPA on campus, and as a 5-star chapter for the second year in a row.

Philanthropy also plays a significant role in the chapter's programming. In fall of 2012, the chapter raised over 104,000 pounds for the North American Food Drive, all benefitting Lafayette's local food banks. In spring of 2013, the Lambda Chi Alpha's Relay For Life team raised over $1,300 for the American Cancer Society and was recognized as the Team of the Year. The chapter also competed in a trivia night put on by Students for the Autism Society at UL Lafayette (SAS) and won first place. They also participated in Ragin' Fury, a fundraising event for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, where they raised a total of $800, enough for another first place finish. The chapter continues to set a great example at UL Lafayette.

On the Friday evening of November 17, 1911, three Howard University undergraduate students with the assistance of their faculty advisor, created the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. The Gamma Delta chapter of Omega Psi Phi was founded on April 7, 1972 on the campus formally known as the University of Southwestern Louisiana, now University of Louisiana at Lafayette. The organization was built on manhood, scholarship, and perseverance. The men of Omega Psi Phi believe it is their duty to serve the community in any way possible. This group of men gather to not only grow as individuals, but to grow as brothers for a greater good. By participating in the University's spirit weeks and remaining active in the community philanthropy events, Omega Psi Phi's presence continues to achieve their goal of impacting others in the best way possible.

"Give expecting nothing thereof" are words that the fine gentlemen of the Louisiana Omicron chapter of Phi Kappa Theta live by. Founded originally in 1959, the fraternity is known as "the oldest tradition on campus." Recently, the chapter has grown to become the largest chapter of Phi Kappa Theta in the Southern Region of the United States.

The Omicron chapter maintains qualities of excellence and prestige by participating in numerous philanthropic activities in the area. Whether it be an opportunity from another Greek Organization or a community event, Phi Kappa Theta is present. Phi Kappa Theta searches to develop its members into young men who are willing to passionately serve others who are in need.

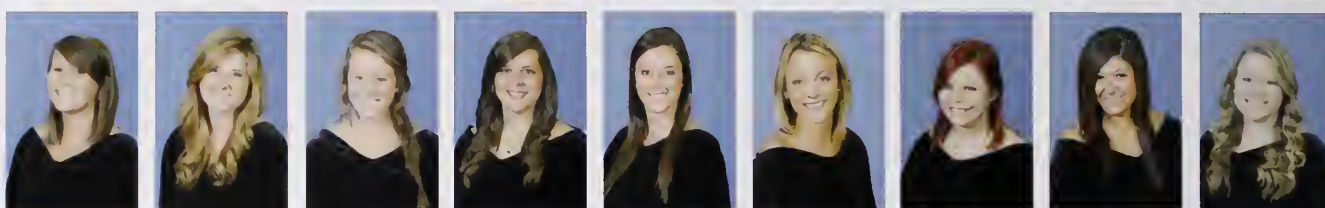

Many members of the fraternity serve in different organizations at UL Lafayette. Phi Kappa Theta has five brackets of member development: fraternal, spiritual, intellectual, social, and leadership. From these brackets, Phi Kappa Theta actively engages in developing life skills and helps not only themselves, but the community of Lafayette as well. The fraternity is indeed rich in traditions, stemming from a nostalgic desire to continue the fraternity's heritage. The fraternity is recognized as a prestigious establishment and is respected on UL Lafayette's campus. The brothers of Phi Kappa Theta may best be known for their intrinsic passion to serve others beyond UL Lafayette's campus.

PHI MU

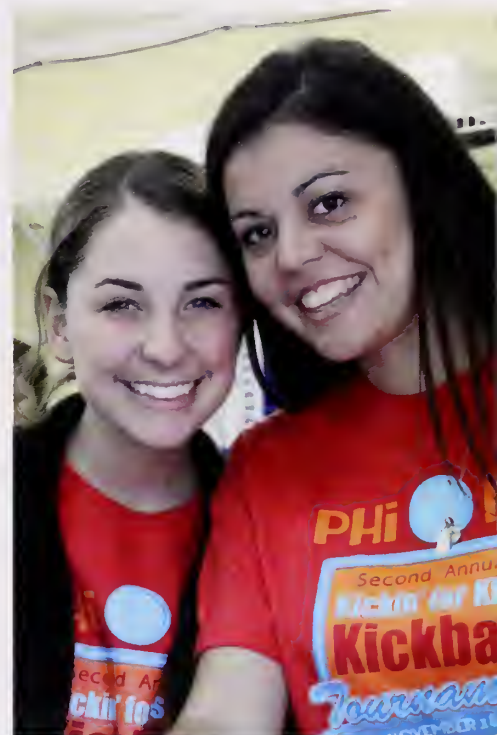

In 1956, the Alpha Sigma chapter of Phi Mu was founded on UL Lafayette's campus. Throughout the year, Phi Mu has been upholding their school pride by the amount of involvement that they have been partaking in on campus and in the community.

The chapter received first place in the homecoming festivities, and had three ladies on the homecoming court, Kim Newville (Queen), Ashley Mudd, and Courtney LeBlanc.

Philanthropy is an important part of the chapter, with two main events for each semester: Kickin' for Kids Kickball Tournament, which is a kickball tournament other Greek organizations compete in, and Big Man on Campus, which is a male beauty pageant. Both events' profits go toward Children's Miracle Network, Phi Mu's national philanthropy.

In 2013, Phi Mu was awarded the Five-Star Chapter Award, the New Greek Women of the Year Award while Ashley Mudd was inducted into the Greek Hall of Fame. Throughout each year Phi Mu has gone above and beyond to uphold the prestige of the organization. Every year is a challenge, but what an enjoyment it is to be a Phi Mu!

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Pi Kappa Alpha is dedicated to developing men of integrity, intellect, and high moral character, and to fostering a truly lifelong fraternal experience. The Zeta Omega chapter on campus has continued to excel over the past year. The chapter was awarded a 2012 Smythe award that is given to the top chapters across the nation for their dedication to areas including scholarship, leadership, and community service.

The chapter was the overall winner of the fraternity division of Homecoming and won Greek Week for the third year in a row. In the areas of philanthropy and community service, the chapter has continued to provide support for their philanthropy, the Faith House of Acadiana, through supply and monetary donations. The chapter also held its first Cycle for Life fundraising event to raise funds for the research of blood cancers. In the fall, the chapter held a flag football game with Coach Hudspeth titled the "Hold the Rope Bowl" in which members of the chapter competed against Coach Hudspeth and his coaching staff.

The Zeta Omega chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha looks forward to continuing to build on their success and find new ways to support the campus and the community.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1856 at the University of Alabama. The Alpha Chapter at the University of Southernwestern Louisiana was founded in January 1968. Sigma Alpha Epsilon's motto is encompassed in John Walter Wayland's "The True Gentleman."

During the school year, some events that Sigma Alpha Epsilon hosts include Paddy Murphy Philanthropy Week, the Kamanawanalaya Luau, along with the Paddy Murphy Party.

Through their fundraising efforts, Sigma Alpha Epsilon were able to donate a significant amount of money to the Children's Miracle Network, which is their national philanthropy. The Children's Miracle Network fights muscular dystrophy in children, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon does what they can to remain active in fighting against it. Sigma Alpha Epsilon was the first national fraternity to host a national leadership school. The Alpha Chapter encourages each other to not only stay active on campus, but in the Acadiana community to become the "True Gentleman" of UL Lafayette.

SIGMA CHI

Sigma Chi stands for friendship, justice, and learning. As a new chapter on the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's campus, Sigma Chi strives to be recognized not only within the University but also in the community. This past year, Sigma Chi made the transition from a colony to a chapter, which is an opportunity that few get. Sigma Chi hosted their first official recruitment in fall of 2012 which resulted in the colony growing into a chapter. The first every Derby Days was a week hosted by Sigma Chi raising 1,000 dollars for their philanthropy, the Autism Society of Acadiana. This required students on campus, especially other Greek organizations, to get involved and participate in games and activities planned by Sigma Chi. Sigma Chi is a growing organization that looks forward to the their future at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

SIGMA GAMMA RHO

The prestigious Pi Epsilon chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Incorporated was chartered on the University of Louisiana at Lafayette on April 22, 2001. Since 2001 over 70 young ladies have graced the UL campus with their presence, service, and hard work. The Sigma women look for any opportunity to help improve the lives of people in the Lafayette community. The spring 2013 was a very busy yet productive semester for Pi Epsilon.

The Sigma ladies participated in various community service projects, Youth Symposium being one of the first. Youth Symposium is a nationwide program hosted simultaneously by Sigma Gamma Rho graduate chapters. The program focuses on prevalent concerns that negatively impact our youth: drugs, teen violence, abuse, low self-esteem, suicide, and teen pregnancy. Another project the poodles participated in was the Cinderella Project—a project geared to help lower the costs young ladies in high school preparing for prom. The chapter has also participated in several walks for great causes, such as the Susan G Komen walk and March of Dimes walk.

The Pi Epsilon chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho unveiled seven newly inducted members on March 26. Chapter members then attended a regional leadership conference in hopes of developing new techniques to become better leaders and role models. With these new techniques the Sigma women hope to become stronger women and continue building the legacy Greater Service, Greater Progress.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Alpha Mu chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma was founded on UL Lafayette's campus in 1931. Tri Sigma is the only sorority on UL's campus to serve both a local and national philanthropy. This past year, the women raised over $10,000 for charities. Their annual Dodgeball tournament raised $9,000 for the Sigma Sigma Sigma foundation which funds Child Play Therapy programs at hospitals across the nation. Through their local philanthropy, the DREAMS Foundation, disabled children are given the opportunity to participate in sports games with other children.

Not only do the ladies of Tri Sigma support their philanthropy, they also attend and participate in the fundraising efforts of other chapters on UL's campus. Among these, Tri Sigma donated over 40,000 pounds of goods for Lambda Chi Alpha's annual Watermelon Bust benefitting the North American Food Drive. They also raised over $650 for the 2013 UL Relay for Life.

For the continuous outstanding philanthropic effort and academic excellence from the Alpha Mu chapter, as well as the support and good sportsmanship they show in helping other Greek chapters, the Mayor of Lafayette declared the week of April 20 Sigma Sigma Sigma Week to give the sorority recognition throughout the city.

The Eta Nu Chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity, founded in 1963, was rechartered in 2011. Their brotherhood continues to grow as they recruit gentlemen who hold the same values of their founding fathers; love, honor, and truth.

Sigma Nu's members strive themselves to remain active on campus. Members are active in organizations such as Student Government Association, Relay for Life, Student Leadership Council, and many more. Throughout the year they hold events to raise money for their philanthropy is St. Jude. They also participate in Habitat for Humanity each semester and volunteer for Campus Cleanup each year.

THETA

XI

Theta Xi Fraternity is a social fraternity for men founded in 1864 whose values include intellectual curiosity, good habits, confidence, responsibility, leadership and spiritual understanding. Its motto is Juncti Juvant, which means United They Serve. The Alpha Omicron Chapter was founded at Southwestern Louisiana Institute in 1946 and is one of the oldest fraternities at UL Lafayette. Many buildings are named after local Theta Xi's including the Heymann Center, Clyde Rougeau Hall, H.L. Griffin Hall, Fletcher Hall, and Glynn Abel Drive, better known as Fraternity Row.

This year Theta Xi participated in a number of events on campus and throughout the community, such as Phi Mu's Big Man on Campus, Spooktacular, Campus Cleanup, GLASS's Spring Social, and Sigma Sigma Sigma's Dodgeball Tournament, as well as participated in Greek Week alongside Sigma Sigma Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Kappa Alpha Psi, and Alpha Kappa Alpha and placed third in the banner competition during Homecoming Week as well as fourth in the spirit competition.

Theta Xi donated volunteer hours and money raised at places such as the Foodnet Can Food Drive, St. Josephs Diner, Habitat for Humanity, Relay for Life, Festival International, and the Chitimacha Louisiana Open Golf Tournament. Theta Xi through fundraising efforts raised the most money out of all fraternities on campus for Relay for Life in 2012, and in 2013 sold the most luminescent bags throughout the community. The Alpha Omicron Chapter of Theta Xi held's it first Car Bash on campus this year and donated $1,300 to a Theta Xi brother who had recently developed cancer's recovery fund. In 2012, Theta Xi had multiple members initiated into the Order of Omega Greek honor Society, and to top the school year off, Theta Xi was awarded 3 stars in Greek Excellence Standards by the Department of Greek Affairs.

LEGAL

L'Acadien yearbook operates with the freedom of press and protections of the First Amendment of the United States Constitutions. Taylor Publishing Company, 1550 W. Mockingbird, Dallas TX, 75235 published volume 94 of L'Acadien, through an open-bid contract with the University of Louisiana at Lafayette office of publishing. The Taylor sales representative was Lisa Leopard. An assessment of $12 per full time student was included in the Fall 2012 registration to fund publishing.

The book was designed using iMac computers. In house graphic designers, under the supervision of the editor in chief designed all layouts. Adobe Creative Suite 5 was used for computer illustrations, artwork, and type effects. Photographs were either submitted or taken with an in-house digital camera, Nikon DH1 or with the staff photographers' personal digital cameras. All information was sent to Taylor digitally. This book was printed using offset lithography and is set at 9 x 12 trim size. All pages were printed using a four color process separation.

The cover design was developed in conjunction with design editor, editor in chief and in house graphic designers. The editor in chief assigned copy to staff and contributing writers. Section editors and editor in chief proofed all copy for submission to the publishing company.

Section editors, the editor in chief and layout designers selected all photographs. Staff members and contributing photographers and local processing services developed all photographs. The UL Lafayette Cajun Card Student Identification Office submitted all university portraits (headshots). Group and candid shots were either taken by staff, submitted by members of the organization or submitted by national composite picture companies. All Greek organization information was submitted to L'Acadien. Missing organizations did not make an appointment or did not turn in a photograph after repeated request.

The 2012–2013 L'Acadien, Volume 94, is copyrighted and may not be reproduced in any form, except for educational purposes, without prior written permission of the current editor in chief, the UL Lafayette Communications Committee and the UL Lafayette Vice President of Student Affairs.

All mentions of "UL", "UL Lafayette", and "the University" refer to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and do not represent any other institutions.

Inquiries, suggestions, information on articles, photos, employment information and comments on the yearbook can be directed to L'Acadien, P.O. Box 40533, Lafayette, Louisiana, 70504 or at (337) 482-6961.
